INLAND POST.

The regulations of the Inland Post apply to any postal packet sent between one place and another in Great Britain (including the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands) and Northern Ireland, and to any postal packet sent between a place in Great Britain or Northern Ireland and a place in the Irish Free State.

Letters. *

1. The rates of postage when prepaid are as follows:—

Not exceeding 2 oz. in weight, 1½d.; for every additional 2 oz. or fraction of 2 oz., ½d.

2. A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; if posted underpaid, with double the deficiency.

3. No letter may exceed 24 inches in length, 12 inches in width, or 12 inches in depth; or, if made up in the form of a roll, 30 inches in length and 4 inches in diameter.

All letters containing instructions to the Postmaster as to the re-direction of letters, should have written on envelope "Re-direction of Letters;" such an intimation will cause the communication to be attended to at once.

Post Cards.

1. The prepaid rate of postage on every post card is one penny. A post card posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; if posted underpaid, with double the amount short paid. The prepaid rate of postage on every reply post card is twopence.

2. The material for private cards to be used as post cards must be ordinary cardboard not thinner than that used for the thinnest cards issued and sold by the Postmaster-General for use as post cards. No card may exceed 5½ inches in length by 3½ inches in width, or be less than 4 inches in length by 2¾ inches in width.

3. Nothing may be attached to a post card except (a) stamps in payment of postage or stamp duty; (b) a completely adherent gummed label or slip to fold back bearing the address at which the card is to be delivered; (c) a similar label (not to exceed 2 inches long and ¾ inch wide) bearing the sender's name and address; and (d) engravings, photographs, drawings, and printed matter, on very thin paper and completely adherent to the card; the card may not be folded, nor may it be cut or altered in such a way as to reduce the size below 4 by 2¾ inches. A post card may not be fastened against inspection in any way, or enclosed in a cover of any kind. If any of these rules be infringed, the card will be treated as a letter.

4. The articles specified in paragraphs (c) and (d) may be affixed either to the back of the card or to the left hand half of the address side. The right hand half of the address side is reserved exclusively for the postage stamp and the address. Contravention of this regulation may result in the card being withheld from delivery. See also Post Office Guide.

Printed Papers.

The prepaid rate is:—For every 2 oz. or fraction thereof up to 2 lb., which is the maximum, ½d.

But any Printed Paper prepaid one halfpenny only and intended for despatch on the day of posting must be posted not later than 4.30 p.m. in London, or in the Provinces not later than such hour as is announced at the local Post Office. The minimum rate of postage for all packets sent at the Printed Paper Rate and intended for despatch by the night mail is one penny if posted after the specified time.

A Printed Paper if posted unpaid is charged on delivery with double postage; if posted underpaid, with double the amount of the deficiency.

No Printed Paper may exceed 2 lb. in weight. The only limit of size applicable is that applicable to letters.

Circulars wholly or partly printed in imitation of typewriting, or reproduced from a type-written original by a mechanical process ordinarily used to produce a number of identical copies, are admissable at the Printed Paper Rate only if—

(a) They are handed in at a Head or Branch Post Office, Town Sub-Office, or certain of the more important Rural Sub-Offices.

(b) Special attention is drawn to the fact that they are printed or reproduced in imitation of type-writing.

(c) At least twenty packets each containing one copy or more are posted at the same time.

(d) A form of declaration, P241, is signed by the poster stating that all the copies of the circulars are identical in text and bear nothing in writing which is not permitted by the regulations of the Printed Paper Rate.

The circulars should be securely tied in bundles of convenient size with the addresses all faced one way. They will be liable to detention or to surcharge if subsequently found to infringe any of the regulations of the Printed Paper Rate.

The special conditions under which invoices, deeds, &c., may be sent as Printed Papers are given on pages 15 to 18 of the Post Office Guide, which may be obtained at any Post Office.

Newspapers.

1. The prepaid rate of postage on copies of publications registered for transmission at the Inland Newspaper Rate, including any supplements thereto, is one penny for every copy not exceeding 6 oz. in weight, with a further charge of one halfpenny for every additional 6 oz. or fraction of 6 oz.

* The rates of postage in the Irish Free State differ from those in force in this country.

The rate is a rate per copy, and, if two or more copies are sent in a single packet, each sopy is liable to the same postage as if posted ceparately. But in no case will a copy or a packet of such copies be chargeable with a higher rate than that chargeable on a printed paper of the same weight.

2. A copy or a packet of copies posted unpaid or underpaid is chargeable on delivery with double the deficient postage at the newspaper rate or printed papers rate, whichever involves the lower charge.

3. Any publication fulfilling the conditions for registration set forth in the Post Office Guide can upon payment of an annual fee of 5s., be registered at the General Post Office for circulation by Inland Post as a newspaper.

4. No copy or packet of copies may exceed 2 lb. on weight, 2 feet in length, or 1 foot in width or depth.

5. (a) A newspaper must be posted either without a cover, or in a cover open at both ends, which can easily be removed for the purpose of examination.

(b) Every copy should be so folded and covered (if posted in a cover) as to admit of the ready inspection of the title.

(c) No unregistered publication, and no article which is not part of a publication registered as a newspaper or a supplement thereto, may be enclosed in any packet sent at the newspaper rate.

(d) No copy of a newspaper sent by post may bear anything (not being part of the newspaper) except the name, address, and description, either of the sender or of the addressee, or both, with index or reference numbers and letters, the words "with compliments," a request for return in case of non-delivery, the title of the newspaper, and a reference to its registration for transmission by post, and a reference to any place in the newspaper to which the attention of the addressee is directed. The same regulations apply to any cover enclosing a copy of the newspaper.

(e) No supplement to a publication registered as a newspaper is admissible at the newspaper rate unless it be sent through the post with the publication to which it is a supplement.

(f) If any of the foregoing regulations is infringed the packet is charged either as an underpaid Printed Paper (if admissible at that rate), or an underpaid Letter, or is transferred to the Parcel Post and charged with a fine of 1d. in addition to any deficient parcel postage, whichever involves the lower charge.

"Blind Literature."

Papers of any kind, periodicals, and books, impressed in "Braille" or other special type for the use of the blind, may be sent, prepaid, by Inland Post, at the following rates of postage:—

For a packet not exceeding 1 lb. in weight, ½d.; exceeding 1 lb. and not exceeding 5 lb., 1d.; exceeding 5 lb. and not exceeding 6½ lb., 2d.

Any such packet, if posted unpaid, is charged with double postage; if posted insufficiently prepaid, with double the deficiency.

To be entitled to transmission by this post a packet must—

1. Consist only of articles specially impressed as described above for the use of the blind, and may not contain any communication either in writing or printed in ordinary type, except the title, date of publication, serial number, names and addresses of printer and publisher, price, and table of contents of the book or periodical and any key to, or instructions for, the use of the special type, or any enclosure except a label for the return of the packet.

2. Bear on the outside the inscription "Literature for the Blind," and the written or printed name and address of the sender.

3. Be posted either without a cover, or in a cover open at both ends which can easily be removed for the purpose of examination.

4. Not exceed 6½ lb. in weight or 2 feet by 1 foot by 1 foot in dimensions, or, if made up in the form of a roll, 30 inches in length and 4 inches in diameter.

If any of these conditions be infringed the packet will either be charged as an insufficiently paid printed paper or letter, or transferred to the Parcel Post, and charged with a fee of 1d. in addition to any deficient parcel postage, whichever charge is the lower.

The use of printed labels with the necessary inscription is recommended.

PARCEL POST.

Chief Regulations.

1. In order that a packet may go by Parcel Post, it must be presented at the counter of a Post Office for transmission as a parcel. It must on no account be deposited in a letter box. Parcels may, however, be accepted by Rural Postmen. The words "Parcel Post" should be written or printed on the left-hand side, immediately above the address.

N.B.—The sender's name and address should appear either inside the parcel or on the cover. In the latter case it must be kept distinct from the address to which the parcel is sent, and preferably written at right angles to the name and address of the adressee.

2. If posted irregularly it will—

(a) If fully prepaid at the rate applicable to any other post and admissible by that post be forwarded as a letter, printed paper, or newspaper.

(b) If insufficiently prepaid at the rate applicable to any other post, but otherwise admissible by that post, be charged with double the deficiency or with deficient postage at the Parcel Post rate together with a fine of a penny, whichever is the less.

3. The rates of postage are:—

For a parcel—	s.	d.
Not exceeding 2 lb. in weight - -	0	6
Exceeding 2 lb. but not exceeding 5 lb.	0	9
„ 5 „ „ 8 „	1	0
„ 8 „ „ 11 „	1	3

No parcel can be sent exceeding 11 lb. in weight.

4. The dimensions allowed for an Inland Postal Parcel are:—

Greatest length - - - - 3 ft. 6 in.
Greatest length and girth combined 6 ft. 0 in.

5. The full postage must be prepaid by means of postage stamps, which must be affixed by the sender.

6. A certificate of the posting of a parcel may be obtained at the time of posting at any Post Office. This certificate must be filled up by the sender and handed to an Officer of the Post Office, who will sign and return it to him.

7. Parcels are neither accepted for transmission nor delivered on Sundays.

Posting of Parcels in large numbers.

Any person who wishes to send off a large number of parcels, whether on a particular day or at regular or irregular intervals, will facilitate the work of despatch if he will give the office where they will be posted early information of the number of the parcels, their average weight, and the dates and times at which he proposes to post them. He will also meet the convenience of the Post Office by sending the parcels to the post in batches, beginning as early in the day as possible.

Parcels for the Irish Free State.

Parcels addressed to the Irish Free State are received from the public under the same general conditions with regard to weight and size and at the same rates of postage as parcels for all other parts of Great Britain and Ireland. (See below as to Customs examination).

Parcels to and from the Irish Free State, Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man.

Parcels addressed to the Irish Free State or addressed to or sent from the Channel Islands (Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and the adjacent inhabited islets) are liable to Customs examination at the port of arrival, and the sender of a parcel is required to make a declaration of contents, upon an adhesive form provided for the purpose, at the office where the parcel is posted. A fee of 6d. for clearance through the Customs is charged on every dutiable parcel received from the Irish Free State or the Channel Islands for delivery in Great Britain or Northern Ireland.

Parcels exchanged between Great Britain and the Isle of Man are liable to Customs examination, but the sender of the parcel is not called upon to furnish a declaration of contents. Parcels which are sent in contravention of the Customs regulations are liable to confiscation, and the senders to prosecution by the Board of Customs.

Parcels addressed to a Post Office to be called for.

See under "General Regulations"—(Poste Restante).

Re-direction of Parcels.

7. Parcels are, when re-directed, liable to additional postage at the prepaid rate for each re-direction, except where both the original address and the substituted address are either served from the same delivery office or are within the same Town Delivery Area, and where re-direction is made within the period of free re-direction allowed for other classes of correspondence (see "General Regulations"). A parcel will not, however, be delivered free of charge to a person who has previously refused to accept it, and for re-issue from a Returned Letter Office a second postage is invariably charged.

Undelivered Parcels.

8. If an undelivered parcel bears on the cover the full name and address of the sender it is returned to him at once and unopened. If not, it is opened by an officer deputed for the purpose, and if it contains the name and address of the sender it is returned to him.

Undelivered parcels which do not contain the address of the sender and are not applied for are liable to be disposed of after three months. Parcels containing perishable articles will be dealt with as may be requisite.

Compensation for Loss or Damage.

See under "General Regulations."

Samples.

Samples can no longer be sent by Inland Post at any rates other than the Letter and the Parcel Rates.

Certificates of Posting of Unregistered or Uninsured Correspondence (except Parcels).

Any person who desires proof that an unregistered letter, letter card, post card, printed paper or newspaper has been posted to a particular person should hand in the letter or other article at a Post Office and ask for a certificate of posting. The fee is ½d., payable by means of a postage stamp, which must be affixed by the sender to the form of certificate.

A single certificate in respect of several articles of the same kind posted at one and the same time can be obtained at any of the larger Head Post Offices, and at any other Post Office by arrangement, if a list of the names and addresses borne by the articles be presented with them. The fee will be ½d. for each article.

It must be clearly understood that articles in respect of which these certificates are issued, are not registered and will not be checked in the post, but will be treated as if they had been posted in a letter-box; that in the event of loss, damage, or delay, the certificate will confer no title to compensation; and that it furnishes no proof of the nature of the contents.

Addresses and Petitions to King and Parliament.

Petitions and Addresses forwarded to the King are exempt from postage. Members of either House of Parliament may receive by post Petitions and Addresses to His Majesty, and Petitions for presentation to either House of Parliament, not exceeding 2 lb. in weight, exempt from postage, provided such Petitions and Addresses be sent without covers, or in open covers, or in wrappers open at the ends. This exemption applies only to an original signed Petition or Address, and not to any copy thereof.

Parliamentary Notices, Jury Summonses.

Particulars as to the conditions under which these documents may be served by post may be obtained from the Secretary, General Post Office, or from the Postmaster at any Head Post Office.

Ballot-Papers.

No postage is payable on Ballot-papers, Poll-books, and other documents which have been used at a Parliamentary Election, and are presented at a Post Office by a Returning Officer for transmission by post to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery. When so presented, an acknowledgment in writing of their receipt must be given by the Postmaster.

The above does not apply to Ballot-papers or other documents used at County Council, District Council, or Parish Council Elections, or at any other Elections; in any such case, if any documents are sent by post the proper postage must be prepaid.

Postage Stamps, &c.

At Money Order Offices the following are kept for sale to the public—viz., postage stamps, which are also available for the prepayment of telegrams, of the respective values of ½d., 1d., 1½d., 2d., 2½d., 3d., 4d., 5d., 6d., 9d., 10d., 1s., 2s. 6d., 5s., and 10s. [the higher priced stamps are not kept at offices at which no demand for them is likely to arise], Registered Letter Envelopes, Post Cards, Letter Cards, Newspaper Wrappers, and Books at 3s. containing eighteen 1½d. and six each of 1d. and ½d. Stamps; also at 2s., containing ten 1½d. and six each of 1d. and ½d. Stamps. Rolls of ½d., 1d., 1½d., and 2d. postage Stamps are also stocked at certain of the larger offices, and can be obtained at other offices on a few days' notice. These rolls are made up in two different ways—viz., with the stamps joined lengthwise and joined sideways.

Prepayment of Postage in Money.

At certain offices in London, and at the Head Offices in Edinburgh, Glasgow, and certain other large towns in the provinces, any Inland postal packets may be prepaid in money, provided that the articles are chargeable with a uniform rate of postage, that the amount paid (including any registration fees) is in no case less than £1, and that, except in the case of parcels, the packets are tied in bundles of 6) (or in the case of bulky packets, in bundles of a convenient size, each containing 10 packets or a multiple of 10), with the addresses arranged in the same direction. Prepayment, however, cannot be made partly in money and partly in stamps, and the money must be paid at the time the packets are handed in at the Post Office.

Deposit Accounts.

Persons who regularly make large use of the Post may, by depositing a sum of money sufficient to cover postage for a week, month, or other convenient period, and by undertaking to pay at the end of such period the amount of postage due, be relieved not only of the trouble of affixing postage stamps to Inland packets, but also of paying postage in money at the actual time of posting.

The charge for a Deposit Account is £2 a year. Accounts may be opened only at those Head Offices at which postage may be prepaid in money. The regulations regarding prepayment in money apply where postage is to be charged to a Deposit Account, save that it is not necessary for all postal packets posted at one time to be prepayable at one and the same rate of postage. Packets chargeable with different rates of postage must, however, be sorted into batches, each of which is chargeable at the same rate, before they are tendered, and the rate of postage payable on each batch must be indicated. Parcels must be handed in separately from other postal packets.

Application to open a Deposit Account should be made to the Secretary, General Post Office, London, E.C. 1, or Edinburgh, as the case may be.

For further particulars see Post Office Guide.

Income Tax Stamps of the following denominations:—1d., 2d., 3d., 6d., 1s., 2s., 3s., 4s., 5s., and 10s. are on sale at Money Order Offices.

Entertainments Duty Stamps of the following denominations:—½d., 1d., 1½d., 2d., 3d., 4d., 6d., 9d., 1s., 1s 6d., 2s., 3s., 4s., 5s., 8s., 10s., and Rolls of 480 stamps of the following denominations:—1½d., 2d., 3d., 6d., 1s., are on sale at Head Post Offices, Branch Offices, and at London District Offices. Stamps of the denominations most commonly used are kept in stock. For rolls or any denomination not in stock, two or three days' notice is required. The stamps can also be obtained direct from Collectors of Customs and Excise.

If application for these stamps is made to a Head Postmaster by post, a Money Order for the value of the stamps (on which poundage must be paid at the ordinary rate) must be enclosed, and postage on the letter should be prepaid.

Government Stamped Tickets, for payment of Entertainments Duty, can be obtained from Collectors of Customs and Excise, or from the Entertainment Tax Branch, Custom House, London, E.C. 3. They are not kept at Post Offices or obtained on application.

Allowance for Entertainments Duty Stamps spoiled or not required (whether adhesive stamps or Government stamped tickets) is made under certain conditions by the Board of Customs and Excise. Where there is a Collector of Customs and Excise the stamps should be handed to him. The stamps may also be handed in for allowance at certain of the larger Post Offices in places where there is no Collector.

Local Taxation, &c., Licences.

In Scotland, the following Licences can be obtained from the Post Office:—

1. At Money Order Offices:—Dog, Gun.

2. At all Money Order Offices where there is a demand for them:—Armorial Bearings, Carriage, Hackney Carriage (horse-drawn), Game, Gamekeeper, Male Servant, Private Brewers.

3. At specially authorised Money Order Offices:—Establishment Licences in Schedule Form, Motor Vehicle Licences (renewals of).

Certain Forms of application for Patents, &c., are stocked at some Post Offices, and any stamped Patent Form can be obtained, at a few days' notice, at any Money Order Office in Great Britain and Ireland, upon prepayment of the value of the stamp.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS AS TO STAMPS.

Use of Cut-out Postage Stamps.

Embossed or impressed postage stamps (except stamps issued in Queen Victoria's reign, which are no longer valid) cut out of envelopes, post cards, letter cards, newspaper wrappers, or telegram forms may be used as adhesive stamps in payment of postage or of a telegram provided they are not imperfect, mutilated, or defaced in any way. Embossed or impressed Inland Revenue stamps cannot be used in payment of postage, and stamps indicating the payment of a registration fee may only be used for registered correspondence.

Defaced, &c., Stamps.

Payment of postage cannot be made by means of imperfect or defaced postage stamps. Stamps are considered defaced when marked on the face with any written, printed, or stamped characters. Stamps may, however, be perforated with initials (but not with names or trade marks) provided that the perforating holes are no larger than those dividing one stamp from another in a sheet of stamps. The work of perforating stamps with initials is left to private enterprise. Any Officer of the Post Office who undertakes the business does so in his private capacity and not as an agent of the Postmaster-General, who has no responsibility in the matter.

Applications for Allowance in respect of spoiled or unused Stamps.

Any person who has spoiled or unused postage stamps, which are not required and which have not been removed from any material, may obtain cash for them subject to the following conditions:—

1. No smaller amount than £1 worth of stamps is repurchased from one person at one time.

2. Commission is charged at the rate of 5 per cent. of the face value of the stamps. A minimum charge of 1d. will be made in the case of spoiled stamps.

3. Application must be made on a form which can be obtained at any Money Order Office. The form and stamps must be forwarded by prepaid post, as directed on the form, to the Comptroller and Accountant General, G.P.O., London, E.C. 1, or in Scotland to the Accountant, G.P.O., Edinburgh. Payment will be made by means of an order sent by post direct to the applicant from the Office to which he forwards the form.

Postage stamps affixed to books, cards, or forms of approved design, used for collecting small sums, are repurchased by special arrangement. Any society or person wishing to adopt this arrangement should make written application to the Comptroller and Accountant General, G.P.O., E.C. 1., enclosing a specimen of the book, card, or form proposed to be used.

(b) Inland Revenue and Insurance Stamps.

Applications for the recovery of the value of spoiled postage stamps, or spoiled or unused Inland Revenue stamps, or Insurance stamps which are spoiled or not required and have not been affixed to any material, can be made in London to the Controller of Stamps, Somerset House, W.C.2, or Telegraph Street, E.C.2 (Wednesday and Friday only); to the Officer in Charge at the following Branch Post Offices, viz.:—Stratford, High Street (413), E.15; Finsbury Park, Seven Sisters Road (290), N.4.; Greenwich, Nelson Street, S.E.10: Hampstead, High Street (63), N.W.3; Hackney, Mare Street (236), E.8.; Forest Hill, S.E.23; Balham, High Road (92a), S.W.12; Putney, S.W.15; Wimbledon, S.W.19; Ealing, W.5; Hammersmith Broadway, W.6; Paddington, Spring Street, W.2; and to the Postmaster at most of the large Post Offices in the provinces.

If the aggregate value of the stamps in respect of which allowance is desired does not exceed 10s. the stamps may be forwarded by post, prepaid, to the Controller of Stamps, Somerset House, London, W.C.2, or to the Controller of Stamps, Edinburgh, as the case may be, accompanied by a statement of the grounds on which the claim is made.

Impression of Postage Stamps on Post Cards, Envelopes, &c.

Paper and cardboard for envelopes, wrappers and post cards, can, on certain conditions, be impressed with postage stamps if presented at the Inland Revenue Office at Somerset House, London, W.C.2, or in Edinburgh, or Manchester.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

Inland.

Nothing may be written or printed or otherwise impressed upon or attached to the address side of any packet which, either by tending to prevent the easy and quick reading of the address, or by inconvenient proximity to the postage stamps, or in any other way, is likely to embarrass the officers of the Post Office in dealing with it. Contravention of this regulation may result in the postal packet being withheld from delivery.

The regulation is held to be complied with in the case of cards, envelopes, labels and wrappers, if the writing or printing is confined to the left-hand half of the address side, the right-hand half being reserved exclusively for the postage stamps and the address.

Registration and Compensation.

The Postmaster-General is not legally liable for any loss or inconvenience which may arise from the loss, damage, delay, non-delivery, or mis-delivery of anything sent by post, and he does not, in any circumstances, pay compensation in respect of unregistered postal packets, but he pays compensation for the loss or damage of certain classes of postal packets, subject to the rules stated in the Post Office Guide.

I.—Registered Postal Packets.

1s.	£180	1s. 11d.	£400

These fees include the ordinary registration fee of 3d. The highest amount of compensation obtainable for any one packet is £400.

Compensation in respect of money of any kind (Coin, Bank Notes, Currency Notes, Money and Postal Orders, Cheques, Stamps, &c.) will be paid only in those cases in which the money is enclosed in one of the Registered Letter envelopes sold by the Post Office and the packet is tendered for transmission by Registered Letter Post. The compensation paid in respect of coin, which must be packed in such a way that it cannot move about, will in no case exceed £5.

Compensation for damage to a packet sent by Registered Letter Post will be paid only in those cases in which the packet is conspicuously marked with the words "Fragile, with care."

II.—Unregistered Parcels.

The maximum limit of compensation is £2.

No compensation is paid in respect of money of any kind sent by Parcel Post, whether registered or unregistered, or in respect of jewellery (gold, silver, jewels, &c.) sent by Parcel Post unregistered.

In order to substantiate a claim for compensation in respect of the loss of a Parcel in the post a Certificate of Posting should be obtained by the sender when the parcel is posted.

† These fees relate to Inland Post only. The fees for the insurance, including registration, of articles addressed to places abroad are shown at page 70 of the Post Office Guide. As regards registration of postal packets for H.M. Ships, see also Post Office Guide.

Advice of Delivery of Registered Correspondence.

The sender of registered correspondence may arrange at the office of posting, either at the time of posting or subsequently, for an advice of its delivery to be sent to him. The fee is 3d., which is payable by means of stamps affixed by the sender to a form provided for the purpose.

Enquiry as to the alleged loss or non-delivery of a registered packet should also be accompanied by a fee of 3d., and should, if possible, be made upon the form used in applying for an advice of delivery. If it is found that the Post Office is in fault the enquiry fee will be refunded.

Conveyance of Single Post Letters by Railway.

By an agreement with the Postmaster-General certain Railway Companies are permitted to accept and convey, both on week days and on Sundays, by the next available train or ship, single Inland Post Letters not exceeding 2 oz. in weight, either to be called for at the station of address, or to be transferred there to the nearest Post Office Letter Box. In addition to the postage (Inland rate 1½d.), which must be prepaid by means of adhesive stamps, the Companies are authorised to charge a fee of 4d. per letter. For a list of the Companies and further particulars, see the current edition of the Post Office Guide.

N.B.—Save in the case of a letter exempted from the exclusive privilege of the Postmaster-General (see Post Office Guide), no letter can legally be sent by Railway otherwise than in His Majesty's Mails, or in the manner above described. Any person who sends or conveys or causes to be sent or conveyed otherwise than by the Post a letter not so exempted, or any person who performs, otherwise than by the Post, any services incidental to the conveying of letters from place to place, is liable by statute to heavy penalties.

Re-direction.

1. No charge is made for the re-direction of letters, post cards, newspapers, and printed papers, whether registered or not, and whether re-directed by an officer of the Post Office or by an agent of the addressee after delivery, provided in the latter case that they are re-posted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays nor being counted) after delivery, and that they do not appear to have been opened, or tampered with.

2. Re-directed packets which are re-posted later than the day after delivery will be liable to charge at the prepaid rate; any packet which appears to have been opened or tampered with will be charged as freshly posted and unpaid.

3. Parcels—see under "Inland Parcel Post."

4. If any registered packet, when re-directed, instead of being given back to the Post Office to be dealt with as registered, is dropped into the letter box, it is treated in all respects as a letter intended for registration, but irregularly posted, and must be surcharged with a registration fee of 6d., minus the value of any stamps already affixed for the registration.

5. Notices of removal and applications for letters, &c., to be re-directed, must in all cases be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters to be re-directed are addressed. Printed forms can be obtained from the local Postmaster, and in London at any District or Branch Office, or from the postman of the walk; and, when filled up and signed, they should be sent to the Postmaster or given to the postman; but it is desirable, for the prevention of mistakes, that persons who are about to change their residence should inform their correspondents beforehand of their intention, so that their letters may be directed in the first instance to their new address. The Post Office does not undertake to provide for the re-direction of letters, printed papers, post cards, and newspapers for a longer period than twelve months from the date of removal, but it is open to any person, after his correspondence has been re-directed for that time, to apply for an extension of the privilege on prepayment of a fee of 1s. a year for the second and third years. For continuing official re-direction after three years from the change of address an annual fee of 5s. is payable. A separate notice should be filled up if it is desired that parcels may be re-directed.

6. The Post Office does not undertake the re-direction of letters, &c., for a person temporarily leaving home, unless the house be left uninhabited, nor does it undertake to re-direct letters addressed to clubs, hotels, boarding houses, or lodgings, or addressed to any premises occupied by two or more persons where the letters are delivered by postman into a common letter-box or to a common agent. When business premises are temporarily left unoccupied—as, for example, during a "wake" or other local holiday—re-direction is only undertaken on payment of a fee of 5s. for each period.

Special Delivery of Correspondence.
To Residents in Towns.

On ordinary week-days, and on Bank Holidays in England and Ireland, and on the equivalent Local Holidays in Scotland, correspondence for persons residing within a town-delivery area will only be delivered free at the Post Office to Private Box holders and persons entitled to use the Poste Restante. Other persons desiring to obtain correspondence addressed to them must in each case pay a special fee of 3d.; and this fee must be paid for the search (which will only be made if the correspondence for delivery is readily accessible at the time) whether correspondence be found or not. If postal packets addressed to a person at two addresses (for instance, a business address and a private address) are required, and search has to be made on different postmen's walks, two fees will be charged.

Residents in Towns may also obtain correspondence without charge (a) when a delivery by postman is regularly suspended on a local half-holiday, or (b) when a delivery to callers is duly sanctioned and publicly announced.

A person residing in a Rural District may on application at the Post Office from which his letters are delivered obtain, free of charge, anything arriving by mails not connecting with a delivery by postman at his place of residence, or anything which the postman has been unable to deliver, provided that it is readily accessible when applied for. He may obtain packets in other circumstances, (a) if he is entitled to use the Poste Restante, (b) if he rents a Private Box or pays for a Private Bag service, and arranges to call for his Private bag, or (c) on payment of a special fee of 3d. (if postal packets for delivery are readily accessible), the fee being payable whether anything be found or not.

A resident in a rural district may also, on payment of a special fee of 3d., have a packet withheld from a particular delivery to be called for at the Post Office.

Registered Correspondence, including parcels, may be retained at the Post Office to be called for once daily on payment of a fee of 15s. a year, or 30s. a year for calling more than once.

Poste Restante.

Postal packets of any kind to be called for are, as a rule, taken in at all Post Offices except Town Sub-Offices. The words "to be called for" or "Poste Restante" should appear in the address. Such packets are retained at the Poste Restante for one fortnight—foreign letters, two months—unless they bear a request for their return within a specified time, which may not exceed the periods mentioned above. If not called for by the end of that time, they are put in course for return to the sender—see under "Undelivered Correspondence." But if a letter be addressed to a Post Office at a seaport town for a person on board a ship, expected to arrive at that port, it is kept two months.

The Poste Restante is intended solely for the accommodation of strangers and travellers, and even they may not use the Poste Restante for more than three months.

Postal Packets addressed to initials, or to fictitious names, or to a Christian name without a surname, are not taken in at the Poste Restante, but are treated as undelivered and dealt with as shown below.

In London there is a Poste Restante at the General Post Office, E.C., and at all Branch Offices.

In the Provinces the Poste Restante is at the Head Post Offices, and, in some cases, at the Branch Post Offices also.

Public Holidays.

In Scotland on Sacramental Fast Days (when observed as local holidays), and on Holidays fixed by Local Authorities, there is generally only one delivery of letters and other postal packets by Postman.

In Scotland on New Year's Day there is only one delivery of letters and other postal packets, and the hours for public business are restricted to those which obtain on Sundays. Money Order (including Telegraph Money Order), Postal Order, National Savings Certificate, Savings Bank, Old Age Pension, Naval, Military and Air Force Allowance and Pension, Parcel Post, and Licence business is not transacted, and in certain rural areas, packets for registration and parcels are not accepted from the public by postmen on that day.

Undelivered Correspondence.

An undelivered inland postal packet which is chargeable with a postage of 1½d. or more, whether a letter, newspaper or parcel, if it bears on the outside the full name and address of the sender, is returned direct and unopened. Any other such undelivered packet is opened by an officer deputed for the purpose; and if it contains the sender's address it is returned to him. An undelivered postal packet, other than a parcel—see under "Inland Parcel Post"—which cannot be returned to the sender and does not contain any enclosure of importance, is destroyed.

Any letter or packet which, on being opened, is found to contain articles above a certain value is, for its safety, recorded and returned registered, and unless registered at the time of posting, the registration fee of 3d. is charged on the sender. Letters from abroad are returned unopened to the country of origin, after a brief detention in the Returned Letter Office. Where the name and address of the sender are shown on the outside, the letter is returned on day of receipt in Returned Letter Office.

Undelivered post cards, printed papers, and newspapers, chargeable with a postage not exceeding one penny, are dealt with as follows:

(1) Those bearing on the outside the name and address of the sender, with a request for their return in case of non-delivery, are sent back direct from the office of destination, and are delivered to the sender on payment of a second postage.

(2) Those not bearing on the outside the name and address of the sender, with a request for their return in case of non-delivery, are destroyed.

Articles not allowed to be sent by Post.

Anything indecent, or explosive, or dangerous or any living Creature.

1. No indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, engraving, book, card, or any article having thereon or on the cover thereof, any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, or grossly offensive character, may be sent by post at all, nor any explosive, dangerous, or noxious substance, nor any living creature (live bees alone excepted), nor anything likely to injure the contents of the Mails or any officer of the Post Office. If any such postal packet be tendered for transmission, it is refused, or, if detected in transit, it is detained. The contents of any such packet are liable to be disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster General may direct, and the sender of it is liable to prosecution by the Department.

The transmission by post of any postal packet containing

(a) any advertisement or ticket relating to a lottery at home or abroad; or

(b) any advertisement issued by or on behalf of any person at home or abroad offering to tell fortunes; or

(c) any advertisement of a Betting House at home or abroad; or

(d) any advertisement relating to the treatment of venereal disease, or to any preparation for its prevention, cure, or relief; or

(e) any advertisement or coupon of any ready-money football betting business at home or abroad is also prohibited.

For further particulars, see Post Office Guide.

EXPRESS DELIVERY OF LETTERS AND PARCELS.

Postal Packets, Letters, and Parcels, are delivered by Express Messenger under the following Services, viz.:—

SERVICE I.

By Special Messenger all the way.

Under this service, Messages, Letters, Parcels, and other articles are conveyed the entire distance by Special Messenger (at request of sender.)

Charges.

For a Letter, Packet, or other Article, the Express Fee (inclusive of charges for omnibus, tramcar, railway, &c.) is

For every mile or part of a mile, - 6d.

On each Packet weighing more than 1 lb., a weight fee of 3d. is charged.

(Ordinary postage is not charged).

If the sender desires, or it is otherwise necessary, that a cab or other special conveyance be used throughout (i.e., from the place of posting to the place of delivery), the actual fare or cost of the conveyance must be paid in addition to the mileage fee. The weight fee is not charged in such a case.

SERVICE II.

Express Delivery of Letters, &c., after Transmission by Post (at request of sender).

Under this Service, Letters and Parcels are forwarded by Mail in the regular course of post, and on arrival at the office of delivery, are sent out by Express Messenger.

Fees.

In addition to the full ordinary postage, the Express Fee is:—

For every mile or part of a mile from the office of delivery, - - 6d.

SERVICE III.

Special Delivery of Letters, &c., in advance of the ordinary Deliverances by Postmen (at request of addressee).

Persons or Firms who desire at any time to receive their letters, or other postal packets of any kind, in advance of the ordinary delivery, may have them delivered by special Messenger on payment of the following fees:—

The full Express fee of 6d. a mile as for one packet, and one penny for every 10, or less number, of additional packets beyond the first. If the letters or parcels have to be searched for at more than one delivery, a charge of 3d. is made for each extra search in addition to the Express fees levied when the special delivery takes place.

Applications for such special delivery must be signed by the person or firm to which the letters or postal packets in question are addressed. Forms of application may be obtained at any Post Office from which letters, &c., are delivered, and also from the more important Town Branch and Sub-Offices.

The applications should be addressed to the Postmaster or "Chief Officer on duty" at the Post Office from which the letters are ordinarily delivered. Where possible, it should be delivered at the Office by hand; but where this cannot be done it may be handed in at any Post Office or posted in any Letter Box in the District served from the office. In the latter case the postage should be prepaid by means of a 1½d. stamp affixed to the outside of the form. Care should be taken, however, that the application reaches the Office on the previous evening, if it is intended to apply to the early delivery in the morning, and, if to other deliveries during the day, an hour at least before the time at which the delivery by Postmen commences.

The Express Fee on at least one packet must be prepaid in stamps affixed to the application. All additional fees must be paid to the Special Messenger on delivery.

If no letters, &c., for the address given are found, a special Messenger will be sent to inform the applicant to that effect, and the Express Fee will be retained to pay for this service.

In cases where a regular delivery by Special Messenger is required, either on one or more days of the week, or of letters, &c., arriving by particular Inland or Foreign Mails, it will be sufficient if only one Form of Application, altered to meet the requirements, is filled up and left with the Postmaster. In such cases the whole of the charges will be collected on the delivery of the Postal Packets.

SERVICE IV.

Letters for Express Delivery on Sunday (at request of Sender).

Subject to the payment of a special fee of one shilling, in addition to the ordinary postage and express fee, any Letter or Postal Packet other than a parcel will be accepted up to the time of the general Night Mail posting on Saturday at the offices mentioned below for special despatch to any of the towns named, but not elsewhere. London (certain offices only—see Post Office Guide) and the following Head Offices in the Provinces :— Edinburgh, Dublin, Belfast, Birmingham, Bristol, Cardiff, Glasgow, Hull, Leeds, Liverpool, Manchester, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Sheffield.

The letters will be delivered from the office of destination by Express Messenger during the hours when that Office is open for Telegraph business. In London the Express fees will be calculated according to the distance from the General Post Office to the centre, approximately, of the Head District or Sub-District in which the address is situated.

For further particulars and table of charges see Post Office Guide.

Use of Telephones for sending Express and Ordinary Letters.

A subscriber to a Telephone Exchange may telephone messages to many Post Offices which can be reached through the local Exchange system, or by means of the Trunk wires, in order that the messages may be written down and dealt with as express letters or ordinary letters. Similarly the public may dictate letters from many telephone Call Offices where Trunk Calls are accepted. Such letters can be delivered by messenger only during the hours of telegraph business, and not on Sundays at any place outside the London Postal District.

An Express Letter telephoned to a Post Office is delivered for the usual express delivery fee if it does not contain more than 30 words, including the address. If it exceeds that number, each additional 30 words, or part thereof, is charged for as a separate express letter.

An Ordinary Letter may be telephoned for transmission by ordinary letter-post at a charge of 1½d. for each 30 words or part thereof, in addition to the appropriate telephone fee.

The charge for the use of the telephone is the same as in the case of an ordinary call.

This "ordinary letter" service renders it possible for a subscriber or caller to dictate a message to a distant port or town and thus catch a foreign mail or a local delivery for which the medium of the ordinary post would have been too late. The proper procedure is for the subscriber or caller to explain to the local Exchange the nature of the service desired and to ask to be placed in communication with "Telegrams" at any provincial Head Post Office at which he wishes his message to be written down and posted, or in the case of letters to be posted in London with the Central Telegraph Office.

Any person receiving an express letter which has been telephoned, may send another express letter back to the Post Office to be telephoned to the sender of the original message. Full express and telephone fees are payable for the reply as for a separate message.

Any subscriber to a Telephone Exchange may obtain the services of an express messenger by telephoning to the nearest Post Office which is connected with his Exchange. The fees for the Express Service are calculated upon the whole distance travelled by the messenger from the Post Office.

For further details of this service see Post Office Guide.

AIR MAIL SERVICES.

Air Mail Services are in operation from Belfast to Liverpool and between Southampton and Guernsey. For details see the Air Mail Leaflet which can be obtained on application at any Head or Branch Post Office.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS.

1. The larger Provincial Post Offices are, as a rule, open for every kind of business from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m., except on Public Holidays ; many of the smaller offices are not open before 9 a.m., and are closed for a period in the middle of the day. Further restrictions are in force at certain Sub-Offices where Telegraph business is not transacted. The hours during which an office is open and the class of counter business transacted can be ascertained by reference to the local window notice.

2. In all offices, whether Head or Country Sub-Offices, which are open to the Public for a longer period, viz., from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., the sale of postage stamps, registration of letters, &c., and acceptance of parcels, is continued during all the hours in which they are so open ; unless the offices are open for telegraph business only, in which case the sale of postage stamps only is continued. Town Sub-Offices are open to the Public from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. In those places, however, where one afternoon in the week is observed as a half-holiday, most Town Sub-Offices are closed early.

3. In all Money Order Offices, and in most of the smaller Post Offices which are not Money Order Offices, postal orders are sold and paid during all the hours in which such offices are open, but no postal order can be sold or paid before 7 a.m. or after 10 p.m.

4. The Postmaster-General is not legally liable for any loss or inconvenience which may arise from the loss, damage, delay, non-delivery, or misdelivery of anything sent by post—see Post Office Guide.

5. No letter or other packet once posted can be withheld from despatch or delivery at the request of the Sender.

6. Postmasters are not bound to give change, nor are they authorised to demand change; and when money is paid at a Post Office, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

7. Postmasters are not bound to weigh for the public any letters or other packets brought for the post, but they may do so if their duty is not thereby impeded. This rule does not apply to parcels, which are tested both as to weight and size before being accepted.

FOREIGN AND COLONIAL POST.

Post Office Daily List.

The latest information as to the despatch and arrival of Foreign and Colonial Mails, &c., is given in the Post Office Daily List, which is issued on every week-day, except public holidays. INSURANCE.

Letters.

A letter for a place against which a limit of insured value is entered in column 5 of the Table of Rates on pages 544 to 584 of the Post Office Guide, can be insured subject to the limitations shown in column 8 of the Table.

The letters to which the insurance system is applicable are those which contain bank notes, currency notes, bonds, coupons, securities, and other documents of the kind. Post Cards, packets of Printed Papers or Commercial Papers, Sample Packets, or Letters which contain articles other than documents, cannot be insured. An object of value which cannot be sent in an insured letter may generally be sent either in an insured box or in an insured parcel. (For further particulars see Post Office Guide.)

Letters intended for insurance must be presented at the counter of a Post Office. They cannot be posted at Railway Stations and must not be dropped into a Letter Box or handed to a postman or mail cart driver.

Boxes.

Articles of gold and silver, precious stones, jewellery and other articles of a like nature, which are prohibited from transmission in insured letters, may be sent in the letter mails as "insured boxes" to Argentine Republic, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Danzig (Free City), Denmark, Egypt, France, Germany, Holland, Hungary, Italy, Luxembourg, Palestine, Portugal, the territory of the Sarre, Sweden, and Switzerland.

The undermentioned classes of articles are prohibited from transmission in insured boxes for any destination:—Articles the admission or circulation of which in the country of destination is prohibited (see column 9 of the Table on pages 540 to 579 of the Post Office Guide), letters or notes which may serve as a substitute for correspondence, current coin, bank notes, or securities payable to bearer, bonds and articles included in the category of commercial papers (see Post Office Guide). It is, however, permissible to insert in the packet an open invoice confined to the particulars which constitute an invoice, and also a simple copy of the address of the box, and of the sender.

Boxes containing prohibited articles are stopped and returned to the senders.

For further particulars, and as regards parcels, see Post Office Guide.

N.B.—The above Table does not apply to parcels, which occupy some considerable time longer, according to distance and requirements of Customs and other regulations.

GENERAL CONDITIONS
Foreign and Colonial.

Letters.

1. A letter posted unpaid or insufficiently prepaid is forwarded and charged on delivery with double the deficiency, with a minimum charge equivalent to 30 centimes (gold), unless it is addressed to a country to which prepayment is compulsory, in which case it is not forwarded, but is returned to the sender if practicable.

2. An unpaid or insufficiently prepaid letter from a place abroad is charged double the deficient postage; the minimum surcharge is 1½d.

3. No letter for a Colony may exceed 2 feet in length or 1½ feet in width or depth. If in the form of a roll, the maximum dimensions are, in all cases, 30 inches in length by 4 inches in diameter. The limit of weight is 4 lb.

4. The addresses of letters for Russia should be very plainly written; the name of the town and of the province in which it is situated should also be added in English or French,

5. To a few countries exceptional conditions apply, such as compulsory prepayment of postage, the collection of an additional charge on delivery, or the absence of arrangements for the complete or even partial registration of letters. (For particulars see P.O. Guide.)

"Panel" Envelopes.

Articles in envelopes entirely transparent or in envelopes with an open panel are not admitted.

The following conditions apply to articles in envelopes with a transparent panel:—

(a) The transparent panel must form an integral part of the envelope and must be parallel to the longest side, so that the address of the addressee appears in the same direction; it must be placed so as not to interfere with the application of the date stamp.

(b) The panel must be sufficiently transparent for the address to be perfectly legible, even in artificial light, and must take writing.

Articles forwarded in envelopes with a transparent panel may be registered.

Advice of Delivery of Registered or Insured Correspondence.

The sender of registered or insured correspondence addressed to any Foreign Country or British Colony in the Postal Union (or of an insured parcel addressed to any place marked ‡ in the Table of Rates shown in Post Office Guide), may obtain an advice of its delivery on application at the office of posting, either at the time of posting or subsequently. The fee is 3d., which must be paid on application by stamps affixed by the sender to a form provided for the purpose. Inquiry as to the alleged loss or non-delivery of a registered or insured packet or insured parcel should also be accompanied by a fee of 3d., and should, if possible, be made upon the form used in applying for an advice of delivery. If it is found that the postal service is in fault, the inquiry fee will be refunded.

Post Cards.

6. The material for private cards to be used as post cards must be cardboard of a make similar to, but not thinner than that used for cards issued and sold by the Postmaster-General for use as post cards. They may not exceed 5½ inches in length by 3½ inches in width, or be less than 4 inches in length by 2¾ inches in width.

Post cards must bear on the face the heading "Carte postale" in French, or the equivalent of this heading in another language. This heading is, however, not obligatory for single post cards of private manufacture.

Reply-paid post cards must bear on the face in French, as heading on the first half, the words "Carte postale avec réponse payée"; on the second half "Carte postale-réponse." Each of the two halves must, moreover, comply with the other conditions laid down for single post cards; one half is doubled over the other and they may not be closed in any way.

Official Inland single post cards (but not reply-paid cards) may be used for destinations outside the United Kingdom if they bear a postage stamp for the additional postage required.

A post card must be sent unenclosed, that is to say, without wrapper or envelope.

Samples.

The use of the Sample Post to and from Foreign Countries and the Colonies is intended to be restricted to (a) bona fide trade samples of merchandise without saleable value, and (b) printers' blocks, keys sent singly, fresh cut flowers, articles of natural history (dried or preserved animals and plants, geological specimens, &c.), tubes of serum, pathological objects rendered innocuous by their mode of preparation and packing, and live bees, when sent for non-commercial purpose. Packets containing goods for sale, or consigned in execution of an order (however small the quantity), cannot be forwarded by Sample Post.

It is recommended that every sample should be indelibly marked "Sample—not for sale," or otherwise defaced in such a way as to render the article unsaleable in the ordinary way of trading.

A packet of samples sent to any British Colony or Possession, Egypt, or non-Union country must not exceed 2 feet in length by 1 foot in width or depth, but to any foreign place comprised in the Postal Union (except Egypt) a packet must not exceed 12 inches in length, 8 in width, or 4 in depth, unless it be in the form of a roll in which case the limit of size is 12 inches in length and 6 inches in diameter. The limit of weight for each destination is shewn in the Post Office Guide, pages 544 to 584.

Postage—1d. for the first 4 oz. and ½d. per 2 oz. for heavier weights.

Letters, &c., by Private Ships.

Letters intended to be sent by Private Ship must be addressed "By Private Ship;" and if by a particular vessel, the name of the ship must be added.

The Postage and conditions of transmission of letters, &c., by a Private Ship are the same as by Mail Packet.

Foreign Parcel Post and Cash on Delivery System.

For particulars of these services see Post Office Guide, which may be consulted at any Post Office.

Re-direction.

1. The principle of free re-direction, which is adopted throughout the Postal Union for letters, post cards, commercial papers, printed papers, and sample packets, does not exempt from additional postage letters, &c., which though fully prepaid for the first transmission, are re-directed to a country to which the postage is higher than that originally prepaid. Thus a letter or packet prepaid at the inland rate, sent from one place to another in the United Kingdom, and afterwards re-directed to a place abroad, should have additional stamps affixed to it representing the difference between the inland and the foreign rate of postage, otherwise the difference will be charged on delivery. The same treatment would be adopted with a letter or packet fully prepaid for the inland service of a foreign Country or Colony and re-directed to the United Kingdom. But a fully paid letter or packet coming here fom abroad, and re-directed under the conditions specified in paragraph 2, would not be chargeable for re-direction unless the postage from the place of origin to the final destination were higher than the postage from the place of origin to this Country. Letters originally posted unpaid, and letters or packets posted insufficiently paid, and subsequently re-directed, though not chargeable for re-direction, are subject to the ordinary charge of double the deficient postage on delivery.

2. Letters, &c., re-directed after delivery at the first address must be reposted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery.

The correspondence intended for Express delivery in any of these countries should be marked "Express," and be prepaid 6d. in addition to the postage. When the addressee resides in the immediate neighbourhood of a Post Office no charge will be made on delivery, but when the place of address is beyond the limits of the Ordinary Postal delivery an additional charge will be levied in the country of destination at its Inland Express rate, allowance being made for the fee prepaid by the sender. In the case of Insured Letters and Boxes, the office of destination is permitted, when its internal regulations so require, to deliver by express messenger on advice of the arrival of the packet instead of the packet itself.

Correspondence from these countries, marked for Express Delivery, and prepaid an Express Fee in addition to the postage will be delivered by Express Messenger from the usual Delivery Office in London, or within a distance of one mile from the local Post Office in the provinces, without further charge, but if Express Delivery is required to be made from the General Post Office or from the Head District Office in London at an address outside the ordinary delivery of such Office or beyond a distance of one mile from the Local Post Office in the provinces, the charge will be at the same rate as for Inland Express letters, viz., 6d. a mile, and will be collected from the addressee, but, in consideration of the fee prepaid by the sender, 6d. will be deducted from the charge for the full distance.

Parcels.

Parcels for certain places (noted with the sign † in the Tables on pages 594 to 657 of P.O. Guide) can be delivered by special messenger on arrival at the place of destination by the pre payment of a fee of 6d. in addition to the postage. For further particulars, and as regards parcels from abroad, see P.O. Guide.

For sums not exceeding £3				4d.
,, above £3	and not exceeding	£10		6d.

The above rates apply to orders issued for payment in the Irish Free State.

Forms of application for Money Orders are supplied gratuitously at every Money Order Office.

A Money Order may be crossed like a cheque for payment through a Bank.

Payment of an Order may be deferred for any period not exceeding ten days after date. The remitter should fill up and sign the request to this effect at the foot of the Order and inform the Postmaster at the time of issue.

Foreign and Colonial.

Money can be sent by means of Foreign or Colonial Money Orders to almost all our Colonies and Protectorates, or to any of the Allied Countries or their Colonies.

The poundage on these orders is 6d. for £1; above £1 and not exceeding £2, 1s.; above £2 and not exceeding £3, 1s. 6d.; above £3 and not exceeding £4, 1s. 9d., and thereafter 3d. per £ up to the maximum of an order—see Post Office Guide.

TELEGRAPH MONEY ORDERS.

Inland.

Offices to which the System Extends.—Money may be transmitted by Telegraph Money Order from any Money Order Office in the United Kingdom which is also a despatching Office for telegrams, and may be made payable at any Money Order Office which is also an Office for the delivery of telegrams. At those Offices which forward but do not deliver telegrams, Telegraph Money Orders can be issued, but cannot be paid.

Foreign.

Telegraph Money Orders may be sent to and are received from certain British Colonies, Dependencies, &c., and Foreign Countries, which are indicated by the letter T in column 4 of the list of Countries on pages 660 to 667 of P.O. Guide. In certain of these countries, which are noted in the list (column 5), the Telegraph Money Order Service is restricted to particular places, a list of which may be seen at any Telegraph Money Order Office. For full particulars see P.O. Guide.

POSTAL ORDERS.

The following Orders are issued, upon which poundage is charged as shown, viz.:—

6 6 - 1½		13 6 - 1½		21 0 - 2
7 0 - 1½		14 0 - 1½

By the use of not more than three stamps affixed to the face of the Order any broken amount, not exceeding 5d., may be made up. Odd half-pence will not be paid. Perforated stamps cannot be accepted for the purpose.

The person who sends one of these Orders must fill in the name of the person to whom it is sent, and, if he so wishes, he can also fill in the name of any particular Post Office, and the Order will be cashed at that Office and no other. The insertion of the name of the paying office affords a safeguard against payment being made to a wrong person. No Postal Order will be paid unless the name of the Payee be inserted in the body of the Order and it properly receipted.

These Orders should be cashed within three months of the last day of the month in which they are issued. Thus, if an Order is bought in the middle of January it should be cashed before the 1st of May; if this is not done, it can only be cashed on payment of a fresh poundage. If an Order is presented for payment more than six months after the month of issue it cannot be cashed until reference has been made to the Money Order Department, London.

Payment of a Postal Order cannot be deferred.

The sender of a Postal Order can obtain repayment of the amount (but not the poundage) on presenting the Order and the Counterfoil at the issuing Office. If the Order has been crossed for payment through a bank the sender must first cancel the crossing by writing across the face of the Order the words "Please pay cash," and adding his initials.

Every person to whom a Postal Order is issued should detach and keep the counterfoil. Its production will be necessary if the Order should be lost.

The Postmaster General cannot undertake to consider any application respecting a Postal Order which has miscarried, or which has been lost or destroyed, unless the counterfoil be produced, and unless proof be given to his satisfaction that the name of the payee was inserted in the Order before the holder parted with it.

After a Postal Order has once been paid, to whomsoever it is paid, the Postmaster General will not be liable to any further claim.

National Savings Certificates.

National Savings Certificates (formerly known as War Savings Certificates) offer a means of investing small sums in a Government security bearing a high rate of interest free of Income Tax.

A new issue, known as the 3rd issue, was commenced on the 1st October, 1923. The purchase price is still 16s., but the Certificates bear interest at a slightly different rate than was previously in force. The purchase price is repayable at any time on application, together with any interest which has accrued. (See paragraph headed "Interest" on page 124 of P.O. Guide). A single Certificate of the third issue becomes worth £1 at the end of six years and £1 4s. at the end of ten years.

NOTE.—The new rate of interest referred to above applies only to the Certificates on sale on and after 1st October, 1923. The 15s. 6d. Certificates on sale up to the 31st March, 1922, and the 16s. Certificates issued April, 1922, to September, 1923, are not in any way affected. Interest on these will continue to accrue at the old rates.

All enquiries respecting National Savings Certificates should be addressed to The Controller, Money Order Department, Manor Gardens, Holloway, London, N.7.

TELEGRAPHS.

Inland.

Charges.—The charge for the first 12 words is 1s. ; every additional word, 1d.

Telegrams handed in on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day will be charged 6d. extra. In Scotland the extra charge is payable on Sundays only.

Forms with embossed stamps can be obtained singly , or in books of 20, interleaved with a sheet of carbonic paper, price 20s. 3d. per book.

Groups of figures are counted at the rate of five figures to a word.

Prepaid Replies.

The cost of a reply not exceeding forty-eight words may be prepaid, and a reply form will then be delivered to the addressee, who will be at liberty to use it for any inland message at any time within twelve months. If the form be not used, its value will be refunded from Headquarters to the sender of the original telegram if he applies and sends the form within twelve months to the local Postmaster.

Reply Telegrams handed in on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day will be charged 6d. extra unless this amount has been prepaid by the sender of the original telegram, in which event the reply form will be marked on the back "Sunday Rate Prepaid." If the telegram is addressed to a place in Scotland, the extra charge need be prepaid on Sundays only.

Repetition.

If the receiver of a telegram doubts its accuracy, he may have it repeated by depositing half the amount paid for its transmission to him. The money will, however, be refunded to him if it should be found that the telegram has been inaccurately transmitted. The sender may also have a telegram repeated back from office to office on payment of an additional half rate at the time of handing in, but in this case no copy of the repetition is given to sender.

Delivery.

The amount paid for transmission covers the cost of delivery up to three miles from the terminal office, or within the town postal delivery of the terminal office, if a Head Office, when that delivery extends beyond three miles. When the addressee resides beyond the free delivery, porterage is charged at the rate of 6d. per mile or part of a mile, reckoning from the limit of the free delivery.

Delivery by Telephone.

In most cases subscribers to exchanges can make general arrangements to have all telegrams (except Press telegrams) delivered by telephone instead of by messenger, but in large towns this can be done only if the subscriber has a registered telegraphic address. Written copies of telegrams delivered by telephone will be sent to the addressees either by post in batches twice daily without extra charge, or singly as express letters on payment of express fees. No charge is made to a subscriber for recording instructions for the delivery by telephone from the normal delivery office of his fully addressed telegrams.

Forms for writing down telegrams received by telephone are supplied free of charge to subscribers on order at any Telegraph Office. Envelopes for enclosing telegrams so received can also be obtained at a charge of 6d. a hundred.

Delivery of any specified telegram by messenger can be ensured by the insertion of the word "Private" at the beginning of the address. The word is chargeable at the ordinary inland rate and the arrangement applies only to ordinary addresses and not to telephonic or registered addresses.

Telegrams may also be delivered by telephone after the local Telegraph Office is closed, provided that the local Telephone Exchange is still open.

Telegrams sent by Telephone.

Telephone Subscribers and renters of private wires to Postal Telegraph Offices (see Post Office Guide), may telephone messages (except Press messages) for onward transmission as telegrams to a Telegraph Office which can be reached either through the local Exchange System or by means of the Trunk wires. A local telephone fee is charged in respect of each call made to the local Telegraph Office appointed for the acceptance of telegrams by telephone, and if a call is made to a more distant Telegraph Office a Trunk fee may also be payable. Similarly the public may dictate Telegrams from many Telephone Call Offices where Trunk Calls are accepted, as well as from Telephone Call Offices which are kept open as Telegraph Offices after the ordinary hours for telegraph business. The usual fee for the use of the Call Office must be paid in addition to the telegram charges.

In the provinces the sender will generally be put through to the local Head Telegraph Office, and in London to the Central Telegraph Office.

Night Telegraph Letter Service.

Night Telegraph Letters may be sent between any two towns in which the Head Telegraph Offices are open always (see Post Office Guide, pages 150 to 466) for delivery by the first post next morning. Night Telegraph Letters are not delivered on Sundays. The rate is 1s. for 36 words or less, and 1d. for every three words beyond 36. They may be sent Reply Paid on payment of an additional charge of not less than 1s., and not more than 4s. (see page 83, P.O. Guide).

Night Telegraph Letters must be in plain language and must bear an ordinary full address. Registered abbreviated addresses and multiple addresses are not admissible. Night Telegraph Letters should be written on telegram forms and the charge should be prepaid in postage stamps. They may be handed in at, or telephoned to, the Head Office of the town (in London, the Central Telegraph Office) before midnight, or posted in time to reach it by midnight, prepaid at the above rate, in an envelope addressed to that Office and marked clearly "Telegraph Letter." They are also accepted over the counter, but not by telephone, at the West Strand Branch Post Office, London, W.C.2.

Re-direction.

Telegrams can be re-directed to a second address either by an officer of the Post Office or by an agent of the addressee.

A fee of one shilling is charged for officially recording instructions for the re-direction of telegrams for one week, 2s. 6d. for a month, and £1 1s. a year, but the record may be cancelled and the original address resumed without further charge.

Multiple Addresses.

A telegram will be delivered at two or more addresses in the same free delivery on prepayment of the ordinary telegram charges for the total number of words in the addresses and text in addition to a charge of fourpence for every copy beyond the first. Each address must be complete in itself. Each London Postal District, for example, is regarded for this purpose as forming a separate delivery, and when a multiple address telegram for London is directed to one or more registered abbreviated addresses, the District initials must be inserted after each registered address, and be paid for.

Registered Abbreviated Addresses.

Any person may register an abbreviated or arbitrary address on payment of a fee of two pounds per annum, dating from the day of registration. Application for such addresses should be made to the Head Post Office.

If telegrams bearing a registered address are to be re-directed as well as fully addressed telegrams, a second fee of one shilling must be paid.

Telegrams for His Majesty's Ships.

The address of a telegram for one of His Majesty's Ships known to be in Home Waters should contain (1) the name of the addressee, (2) the name of the ship prefixed by the letters "H.M.S.," and (3) the name of the Telegraph Office of destination or, alternatively, the word "London."

The Post Office cannot supply information of the whereabouts of a ship, but this information can be obtained on application to the Admiralty, either by telegram with prepaid reply, or by letter stating the time at which it is proposed to send the telegram.

As regards telegrams to His Majesty's Ships in Foreign Waters, see Post Office Guide.

RADIOTELEGRAMS.

To and from ships at sea.

Radiotelegrams are accepted at any Telegraph Office for transmission to ships equipped with wireless telegraph apparatus through any of the coast stations in the list given on pages 711 to 716 of P.O. Guide.

FOREIGN AND COLONIAL TELEGRAMS.

Charges.

Particulars of the charges and full list of all countries to which messages may be sent will be found on pages 673 to 710 of the Post Office Guide.

Imperial Cables.

A cable service to Canada, the British West Indies, Australia, New Zealand, &c., is now provided by means of the State-owned Imperial Cables, which are worked directly between the Central Telegraph Office, London, and Halifax, Nova Scotia.

At Halifax connection is made with (1) the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's telegraph system to all parts of Canada; (2) the Halifax and Bermudas Cable Company's Cable to the West Indies; and (3) a special line direct to Bamfield, near Vancouver, the Canadian end of the State-owned Pacific Cable to Australia and New Zealand. A rapid and reliable service to all these countries is thus provided.

The rates charged for ordinary telegrams are the same as those in force on other cable routes. In addition there are special "deferred," "night letter," "daily letter," and "week-end" services at reduced rates, particulars of which can be ascertained at a Post Office. (See also Table of Rates at pages 675 to 710 of P.O. Guide).

Telegrams for transmission "via Imperial" should be handed in at a Post Office. They need no special routing instructions, and may be written on the ordinary forms for foreign telegrams. Books of special forms for these telegrams can, however, be obtained from certain Head Post Offices or from the Secretary, General Post Office, E.C.1, from whom further particulars of the special facilities provided can be obtained.

PLAIN LANGUAGE; CODE LANGUAGE; CYPHER.

Telegrams are accepted without restriction to most places abroad. A few countries still maintain restrictions, of which particulars may be obtained at any Post Office.

In plain language the length allowed for a single word is 15 letters, additional letters being charged for at the rate of 15 letters to the word.

In code language no word must exceed ten letters in length. Words in plain language in the text of a telegram which also contains words in code language are charged for at the rate of 10 letters to a word, any excess being charged for at the rate of 10 letters to a word.

Letter and figure cypher cannot be combined in one group.

Combinations in plain language, code, or cypher, formed by running together two or more real words (whole or contracted), or a real word and some other expression, are prohibited.

Multiple Addresses.

A telegram addressed to several persons in the same town, or to the same firm at different localities in the same town, is charged for as a single telegram (all the words in the several addresses and the text being counted), but a sum of 5d. must be prepaid for every extra copy to be delivered if the number of chargeable words per copy does not exceed 100, and an additional sum of 5d. per copy for every additional 100 words or part of 100 words.

Prepaid Replies.

A reply of any length may be prepaid, but the minimum payment is 10d. The amount paid for a reply is refunded to the sender of the original telegram if no reply is sent, provided that application is made within three months. If the addressee does not use the reply form of a telegram, the cost of the reply will be returned to the sender on application to the Secretary, General Post Office, within three months of the date of issue of the reply form. The form must be returned with the application.

Repetition.

The sender can have his telegram repeated from office to office throughout the whole course of its transmission by paying over and above the charge for the original transmission a quarter of that charge, the expression "TC" being inserted immediately before the receiver's address. Repetition is desirable for all telegrams in code or cypher.

The receiver of a telegram can obtain the verification of doubtful passages or words by paying a sum calculated by multiplying the number of words to be repeated by the rate per word to the place from which repetition is to be obtained. The minimum charge is 10d. The amount is refunded if the telegram has been inaccurately transmitted.

If the repetition shows that the repeated words were not all inaccurately transmitted in the first instance, a proportionate part only of the amount paid for repetition will be refunded.

Mixed Postal and Telegraph Service.

A telegram can be forwarded partly by telegraph and partly by post. Thus a telegram intended, say, for India, can be telegraphed to Marseilles to catch the outgoing mail, and thence forwarded by post to its destination. In addition to the cost of the telegram to the place of posting, a charge of 2½d. is collected from the sender if the telegram is to be posted from one country to another, but no charge is made for postage if the telegram is to be posted from one place to another in the same country. If the telegram is to be posted as a registered letter, a registration fee of 3d. is charged in addition to the charge for postage (if any).

The sender should write the word "Poste" before the addressee's name, the name of the terminal telegraph office being written last in the address. For example: "Poste Smith 10 Broad Street Calcutta Marseilles." The word "Poste" is charged for as a part of the telegram. Registered abbreviated addresses cannot be used.

The Postmaster-General is not liable for any loss or damage which may be incurred or sustained by reason or on account of any mistake or default in the transmission or delivery of a telegram.

PRIVATE TELEGRAPHS, AND TELEPHONES.

1. The terms on which private telegraph and telephone lines can be provided may be ascertained in the provinces by application to the District Managers of the Telephone Service, and in London to the Controller, London Telephone Service.

TIME SIGNALS.

Where the Telegraph arrangements permit, Greenwich mean time can be supplied by electric current every hour in the day in London, and at either 10 a.m. or 1 p.m. (Greenwich time) to places in the country.

Where sufficient support is forthcoming special arrangements can be made for the hourly synchronization of clocks.

Information as to rates and arrangements can be obtained in London from the Controller, London Telephone Service, 144A Queen Victoria Street, London, E.C.4 (Telephone No., City 2000), and in the Provinces from the District Managers of the Telephone Service.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

Under the Wireless Telegraphy Act, 1904, no person may establish a wireless telegraph station or instal or work any apparatus for wireless telegraphy in any place in Great Britain and Northern Ireland or on board any British Ship in the territorial water abutting on the coast of the British Isles except under a Licence granted by the Postmaster-General.

By an Order in Council dated the 29th February, 1908, the provisions of the Act were extended to British ships on the high seas.

Wireless telegraphy is defined to mean any system of communication by telegraph without the aid of any wire connecting the points from and at which the messages or other communications are sent and received. It includes wireless telephony.

Any person contravening the Act renders himself liable to serious penalties.

Wireless Licences.

Broadcast receiving licences may be obtained at any Post Office at which Money Order business is transacted on payment of a fee of 10s. per annum in each case.

Experimenters' Licences are only issued by the Secretary, General Post Office, London, E.C. 1, to persons who satisfy the Postmaster-General that they have a definite object of experiment in view and are qualified to conduct experiments.

Oxford—Cairo Wireless Service.

Telegrams for Abyssinia, East Africa (Erythrea and Italian Somaliland), Egypt, Iraq, Palestine, and Syria, Liban and Trans-Jordania.—A wireless service to and from Abyssinia, East Africa (Erythrea and Italian Somaliland), Egypt, Iraq, Palestine, and Syria, Liban and Trans-Jordania is now provided via the Imperial Wireless Stations near Oxford and Cairo.

Except in the case of Iraq, the rates of charge are 3d. a word less than the corresponding cable rates for ordinary telegrams, and 1½d. a word less than the corresponding cable rates for deferred telegrams. The rate for places in Iraq is at least 4d. a word less than the rate by any other route for fully-paid traffic with correspondingly reduced rates for deferred traffic. (See Table of Rates at pages 675 to 710 of Post Office Guide.)

Press telegrams may be sent to and from Egypt (first region), Palestine, and Syria and Liban at 2½d., 3½d., and 4d. a word respectively, subject to conditions which may be ascertained on application to the Secretary, General Post Office.

Telegrams intended for transmission by this route should be marked "via Egypradio." The ordinary foreign telegram forms should be used.

Telegrams for places beyond Egypt.

Arrangements have been made, pending the provision of further Imperial Wireless Stations, for telegrams addressed to places beyond Egypt, served by the system of the Eastern Telegraph Company, to be forwarded by wireless to Cairo and thence by the Company's service to their destination; and the Postmaster General reserves the right to forward telegrams handed in at Post Offices for such places by this route, provided that they are not specifically marked by the senders for transmission "via Eastern," and provided that the service by wireless is as expeditious as the service by cable. The normal cable rates are applicable to such telegrams.

Post Office Wireless Services with the Continent.

Several Wireless Services have been instituted with the Continent, auxiliary to, and at the same rates as, the ordinary cable services. The Postmaster-General gives notice that he reserves the right to use these services for urgent, ordinary, or press telegrams, except in cases where the senders mark the original forms "By Wire."

TRUNK TELEPHONE LINES.

The Telephone Trunk Lines which connect the various Telephone Exchanges throughout the Kingdom can be used by callers at Post Offices, and at many other Call Offices connected with the Telephone system, as well as by subscribers and callers using Telephone Exchanges.

The fees for Trunk Calls, i.e., calls to Exchanges more than 7½ miles from the originating Exchange (with certain extensions of area in London, Birmingham, Glasgow, Liverpool, and Manchester) are as follows:—

* This charge covers 6 minutes' conversation.

In addition to the above fees a special charge of 1s. per message is made on calls between Great Britain and Ireland between the hours of 7 a.m. and 2 p.m., 9d. between 2 p.m. and 7 p.m., and 6d. between 7 p.m. and 7 a.m. in respect of each 3 minutes.

The Call Office fee of 2d. is added to the above fees when a call is made from a Call Office. The Call Office fee is payable in respect of each 3 minutes' conversation in the daytime and each 6 minutes' conversation at night.

The unit period of conversation is three minutes from the time when the caller or subscriber has been informed that the connection is completed, but any caller, by prepaying a double fee, may secure the option of extending a three minutes' conversation to six minutes on demand at the end of the first period.

When the option of extending a call to six minutes has been asked for by a caller, and the call is completed in three minutes, the fee for the second period will be refunded.

No person is permitted to use a Trunk Line continuously for more than six minutes if other persons are waiting to use the line

No charge is made for the use of the Trunk Lines when the person in attendance at the originating subscribers' telephone is not placed in a position to converse with some person attending at the telephone of the distant subscriber.

If a call cannot be duly effected, owing to there being no reply from one of the subscribers, attempts will be made by the telephonist at short intervals to effect the call, unless cancelled, until a period of 2 hours has elapsed. No additional charge will be made in respect of these attempts.

When a call is cancelled after the attention of both subscribers has been obtained and effective communication is practicable, a full fee is charged.

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, &c.

THE following is a List of Stamp Duties according to the schedule of the Stamp Act, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 39), which came into operation on 1st January, 1892, with the alterations by subsequent Acts. The duties imposed by prior Acts on Patent Medicines, Playing Cards, and certain Licenses are also given. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule, and except where otherwise referred to are those of the Act. Items relating solely to England and Ireland are omitted. In the same session was passed the Stamp Duties Management Act, 54 and 55 Vict. c. 38. Separate tables of Estate, Legacy and Succession Duties follow.

Except where express provision is made to the contrary, all duties are to be denoted by impressed stamps only.—§ 2.

Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of paper.—§ 3 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of paper is to be separately stamped. —§ 3 (2).

Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 4 (a). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it, as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 4 (b).

All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to duty, or the amount of it, are to be fully and truly set forth. If not, fine on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—§ 5.

Every condition of sale framed to preclude objection or requisition upon ground of insufficiency of stamp upon instrument executed after 16th May, 1888, and every contract, arrangement, or undertaking for assuming liability on account of insufficiency of stamp or indemnifying against such liability or insufficiency, void.—§ 117.

Foreign or colonial currency, or stock or marketable security, ad valorem duty to be calculated on value in British currency at current rate of exchange or average price of stock or marketable security at date of instrument. Instrument containing statement of current rate of exchange, or average price, and stamped accordingly, to be deemed duly stamped until statement shown to be untrue, and that instrument is in fact insufficiently stamped.—§ 6.

[But by 62 and 63 Vict. c. 9, § 12, (1) where an instrument other than a bill of exchange or promissory note is charged with an ad valorem duty in respect of any money in any foreign or colonial currency a rate of exchange for which is specified in a schedule to the Act, it shall be calculated according to the rate of exchange therein specified, and by (2) the Commissioners may substitute any rate of exchange for that mentioned in the schedule and may also extend the schedule by advertisement in the London Gazette. The schedule as subsequently altered gives the following equivalents in sterling of foreign currencies:

Gold dollar 4½ to £1; silver dollar and rouble 10; yen 10; florin, guilder, and gulden 11; rupee 15; mark 20 billions; Franc (French), 100; Franc (Belgian), 110; Franc (Swiss), 25; Lira, 100.

The Commissioners have made the following extension:—

Paper dollar of Argentine Republic, 10 to £.]

An appropriated stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description—§ 10 (1). An instrument of the description to which a stamp is appropriated is not to be duly stamped unless stamped with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 10 (2).

[Transfer of share registered in a Colonial Register under Companies (Colonial Registers) Act, 1883, deemed transfer of property situated out of United Kingdom, and, unless executed in any part of United Kingdom, exempt from British Stamp Duty.—46 and 47 Vict. c. 30, § 3 (7) (a).]

No instrument, except in criminal proceedings, shall be given in evidence, or be available for any purpose whatever unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force when executed.—§ 14 (4).

If any person registers an instrument not duly stamped, fine £10.—§ 17.

Instruments relating to the property of the Crown and private property of the Sovereign, liable to same duties as instruments relating to the property of the subject, except where express provision to the contrary.—§ 119.

Any instrument specifically charged by any Act, passed prior to 1871, not relating to stamp duties, with the duty of 35s. is chargeable with duty of 10s. —§ 120. Any instrument referring to any Act repealed by Stamp Act, 1891, shall, unless context otherwise require, be construed to refer to that Act or the corresponding enactment therein.—61 and 62 Vict. c. 46, § 7 (2).

Estate duty is payable on the principal value of all property, heritable and movable, and proceeds and investments thereof, settled and unsettled, which passes on the death of a person dying after 1st August, 1894, either immediately or after an interval, or at a period ascertainable by reference to death, either certainly or contingently, and either originally or by way of substitutive limitation, including all property:—

(a.) Of which deceased at his death was competent to dispose;

Note.—A person is deemed competent to dispose of property if he has such an estate or interest therein, or such general power as would, if he were sui juris, enable him to dispose of the property (including an institute or heir of entail in possession, whether sui juris or not); and the expression "general power," includes every power or authority enabling the donee or other holder thereof to appoint or dispose of property as he thinks fit, whether exciseable by instrument inter vivos, or by will, or both, including a general power to charge money on property, but exclusive of any power exerciseable in a fiduciary capacity under a disposition not made by himself, or as mortgagee.

(b.) In which deceased or any other person had an interest, ceasing on death of deceased—to extent to which a benefit accrues thereby; except where the interest is as holder of an office or recipient of a charity;

(c.) Property taken as a donatio mortis causa or taken under a disposition purporting to operate as an immediate gift inter vivos, or a surrender assurance divesting or disposition of property made or effected three years before the death of the deceased, or whenever made if immediate possession and enjoyment has not been assumed by donee, and thence forward retained to exclusion of donor or benefit to him; Exemption gifts which are made in consideration of marriage, or which are proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners to have been part of the normal expenditure of the deceased, and to have been reasonable, having regard to the amount of income or to the circumstances, or which in the case of any donee do not exceed in the aggregate £100 in value or amount, or made or effected for public or charitable purposes.

(d.) Which deceased has transferred to himself and any other person jointly, by disposition or otherwise, including a purchase or investment alone, or in concert with another, so that the beneficial interest therein, or in some part thereof, passes by survivorship to such other person;

(e.) Passing under any settlement by deed or instrument not taking effect as a will, whether made for valuable consideration or not between settler and any other person, or any trust in writing or otherwise whereby an interest for life, or other period determinable by reference to death, is reserved expressly or by implication to the settler, or whereby he may have reserved the right, by the exercise of any power, to restore to himself, or to reclaim the absolute interest therein, or in proceeds thereof;

(f.) Proceeds of life policies kept up by deceased for benefit of a donee, whether nominee or assignee, or part thereof in proportion to premiums paid by him, where partially kept up;

(g.) Annuities (other than a single annuity not exceeding £25, or the first granted of two or more such), or other interest purchased or provided by deceased alone or in concert with any other, to extent of beneficial interest accruing by survivorship or otherwise on death of deceased [duty may be paid by four yearly instalments];

(h.) "Property comprised in any special assignation or disposition taking effect on death."

ENTAILED ESTATE.

Where an entailed estate passes on death of a deceased who dies prior to 12th May, 1914, to an institute or heir of entail, not entitled to disentail without obtaining one or more consents, or having those consents valued or dispensed with, Settlement Estate Duty, as well as Estate Duty, is payable; but neither Estate Duty nor Settlement Estate Duty is again payable until such estate is disentailed, or until an heir of entail to whom it passes on or subsequent to the death of the institute or heir first mentioned, and who is entitled to disentail without obtaining consent or having the consent valued and dispensed with, dies.

Settlement Estate Duty is not payable on entailed estate which passes by a death after 15th August, 1914, but Estate Duty is payable on every passing of such estate by death after that date, whether the deceased was competent to disentail or not, unless the person dying was the husband or wife of a person on whose prior death Estate Duty has been paid. In the latter case the provisions of sec. 23 (16) of the Finance Act, 1914, remain applicable.

An institute or heir of entail in possession of an entailed estate, not entitled to disentail such estate without obtaining one or more consents, or having those consents valued and dispensed with, paying Estate Duty, and afterwards disentailing, may deduct from the value in money of the expectancy or interest in such estate of the persons whose consents were granted or dispensed with, a proper rateable part of the duty paid by him.

PROPERTY ABROAD.

Charge confined to moveable property, of which the owner dies domiciled in United Kingdom, or to property in which deceased was interested for life, and which was subject of a British trust.

Property in a British Possession.—If duty in respect thereof also payable there, a sum equal to the amount may be deducted from the Estate Duty, provided that in such possession no duty is chargeable in respect of property situate in the United Kingdom, or allowance is made of any duty payable in the United Kingdom. This provision applies to such British possessions as are from time to time brought within its scope by Order in Council.

Where property situate out of Great Britain is bequeathed to or settled on different persons in succession, and legacy or succession duty has been paid thereon, such duty shall be deemed to be payable in respect of the property on the death of each of those persons in succession, notwithstanding that the whole amount of the duty was paid on one death only as in the case of a legacy to one person.

EXCEPTIONS.

Enlargement of interest of settler.—Property settled by a person on himself for life, and after his death for another with an ultimate reversion to himself, is not deemed to pass by death of such other person after 1st July, 1896, in settler's lifetime.

Reverter to settlor.—Estate Duty is not payable when property reverts to a settlor in his lifetime on the death, on or after 1st July, 1896, of a person having a limited interest under a disposition; provided that no other interest was created by the disposition, and that the person having the limited interest had not, prior to the disposition, been competent to dispose of the property.

Trust property.—Not liable if held by deceased for another person under a disposition not made by deceased, or made by him more than a year before death, and possession and enjoyment bona fide assumed by beneficiary immediately on creation of trust, and thenceforth retained to entire exclusion of deceased or of benefit to him.

Bona fide purchase from person under whose disposition property passes, or determination of an annuity for lives—duty not payable where purchase made or annuity granted for full consideration in money or money's worth to vendor or granter for his own use or benefit. Where purchase made or annuity granted for partial consideration value of consideration to be allowed as a deduction from value of property for purpose of duty.

Estate Duty not payable on the property of common seamen, marines, or soldiers, dying in His Majesty's service; nor

On any pension or annuity by Indian Government to widow or child of a deceased officer of such Government.

The Treasury may remit duty on such pictures prints, books, manuscripts, works of art or scientific collections as appear to them to be of national, scientific, historic, or artistic interest, given for national purposes, or to a university, or county council, or municipal corporation. Also on similar articles in private possession while they remain unsold. Duty shall not become chargeable on the sale if sale is to the National Gallery, British Museum, or other similar national institution, any university, any county council, any municipal corporation in the United Kingdom, or the National Art Collection Fund.

Also on the estates of persons killed in the late war while serving with His Majesty's forces as provided by the Death Duties (Killed in War) Act, 1914, and § 31 of the Finance Act, 1919. Extended to cases of members of the crews of vessels killed in war, § 29 Finance Act, 1917. Also extended to persons killed during present disorders in Ireland—Section 43 (1) Finance Act, 1921.

Section 43 (1) Finance Act, 1921. Also extended to cases of persons who die from wounds inflicted, accidents occurring or disease contracted, while on active service against an enemy or on service which is of a warlike nature or which in the opinion of the Treasury otherwise involves the same risks as active service. § 38, Finance Act, 1924.

Where husband or wife entitled, solely or jointly, to income of property settled by the other under a disposition taking effect before 2nd August, 1894, and on his or her death survivor becomes entitled to the income of the property settled by such survivor, duty is not payable in respect of that property until death of survivor.

Estate Duty is not payable on the death of a person who dies prior to 16th August, 1914, in respect of moveable property settled by a will or disposition made by a person dying before the 2nd August, 1894, in respect of which property, inventory, or account duty has been paid, or is payable, unless in either case deceased, at the time of his death, or at any time since the will or disposition took effect, had been competent to dispose of the property.

But where the death is after 15th August, 1914, the property so settled is chargeable with Estate Duty despite such prior payment, unless the person dying is the husband or wife of the predecessor on whose death Inventory or Account Duty was paid and had not been competent to dispose of the property. (See also Settled Property.)

Where on a death Estate Duty is payable in respect of property passing under a settlement by will or disposition made before 2nd August, 1894, and before that date any additional succession duty under 55 Vict. c. 8, § 21, or Temporary Estate Duty, or Legacy or Succession Duty at 1 per cent. (which would now be covered by payment of Estate Duty) has been paid, such latter duties may form deductions from the payment of Estate Duty. (See also Limitation for Liability.)

AGGREGATION—ESTATE BY ITSELF.

All property passing on a death to form one estate, on which duty to be levied at the proper graduated rate on principal value; but property in which the deceased never had an interest, and also, in the case of deaths after 18th April, 1907, any settled property which would under sect. 12 (2) of the Finance Act, 1900, have been subject only to limited aggregation, forms an estate by itself on which duty is payable at the appropriate rate.

Small estates not exceeding £1000 net.—Where net value of property, heritable and moveable, exclusive of property settled otherwise than by the will of the deceased, does not exceed £1000, such property is not to be aggregated with any other property, but is to form an estate by itself.

SETTLED PROPERTY—SETTLEMENT ESTATE DUTY.

Where property liable to duty is settled by the will of a person dying prior to 12th May, 1914, or having been settled by some other disposition, passes under it on death of a person so dying to some person not competent to dispose thereof, a further duty, called Settlement Estate Duty, is payable on the principal value, except where the only life interest in such property after deceased's death is that of the husband or wife of deceased, or where the disposition took effect before 2nd August, 1894. Property in which the wife or husband of deceased takes an estate of Terce or Courtesy, or other like estate is to be treated as property settled by will of deceased

Provided.—(a.) Estate Duty and Settlement Estate Duty are not payable twice under the same settlement, with reference to death prior to 16th August, 1914, unless deceased at his death was, or at any time during continuance of settlement had been, competent to dispose of the property;

(b.) Where the interest of any person under the settlement fails or determines by reason of his death before it becomes an interest in possession, and subsequent limitations under the settlement continue to subsist, the property is not deemed to pass on his death;

(c.) Ad valorem stamp duty on settlement may be deducted from Settlement Estate Duty;

(d.) Settlement Estate Duty not payable where lands or chattels are so settled by Act of Parliament or royal grant that no one of persons entitled in succession can alienate the same;

(e.) Settlement Estate Duty under a will is payable out of the settled legacy or property to the exoneration of residuary estate, and is leviable on an account to be delivered by the executor within six months of death—(after 1st July, 1896).

(f.) Settled property does not include property held under entail.—See Entailed Estate, supra.

(g.) Contingent settlement.—If contingency do not and cannot arise, duty to be repaid.

Where the death is after 11th May, 1914, Settlement Estate Duty is not chargeable, but Estate Duty is payable on every passing of settled property by death after 15th August, 1914, unless the person dying after that date was the husband or wife of the deceased on whose death the prior payment of Estate Duty (and Settlement Estate Duty) was made, and had not been competent to dispose of the property during the continuance of the settlement.

Where, if the death had been prior to the 16th August, 1914, the payment of Settlement Estate Duty would have franked the passing, then, on the first occasion that Estate Duty is again payable on the settled property allowance for the Settlement Estate Duty formerly paid is made.

PERSONS LIABLE—HOW PAYABLE—LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

Executor or Intromitter, Inventory.—Every person who, as executor, nearest of kin, creditor, or otherwise, intromits with, or enters upon the possession or management of, any personal property wheresoever situate, of which deceased, at his death, was competent to dispose, is to pay the duty thereon, on exhibiting and recording in the proper sheriff court, within six months of the death, an inventory (or additional or corrective inventory) of deceased's estate [Forms A, B, and D1] and may pay, in like manner, the duty on any other property passing on such death, which, by virtue of any testamentary disposition of the deceased, is under his control, or in the case of property not under his control, if the persons accountable for the duty thereon request him to make such payment. He may state on inventory that he does not know amount or value of certain property which passed on the death, and undertake, as soon as ascertained, to pay duty thereon and any further duty payable by reason thereof on the other property in the inventory.

Executor is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, to specify in appropriate accounts annexed to the inventory (Form A 1) all the property in respect of which duty is payable upon the death of deceased whether he is or is not accountable for the duty thereon. He shall not be liable for duty in excess of assets received by him, or which, but for his neglect or default, he might have received.

Other persons liable.—Where executor not liable for duty, every person to whom any property passes for any beneficial interest in possession, and also, to the extent of the property actually received or disposed of by him, every trustee, tutor, curator, judicial factor, or other person in whom any interest in the property, or the management thereof, is at any time vested, and every person, in whom the same is vested in possession by alienation or other derivative title, is liable therefor, excepting one who acts merely as agent for another in the management.

A bona fide purchaser for valuable consideration without notice is not liable for duty.

Limitation for liability.—The various limitations in favour of purchasers and mortgagees, etc., under 52 Viot. cap. 7, §§ 12-14, are made applicable to Estate Duty. (See Succession Duty.) After 20 years from the death Commissioners may, on application, remit any duty unpaid or interest thereon in whole or in part.

VALUE—DEDUCTIONS—REPAYMENT.

In estimating the principal value of any property under subsection (5) of section 7 of the Finance Act, 1894, in the case of any person dying on or after 30th April, 1909, the Commissioners shall fix the price of the property according to the market price at the time of the death of the deceased, and shall not make any reduction in the estimate on account of the estimate being made on the assumption that the whole property is to be placed on the market at one and the same time. In estimating the principal value of any agricultural property which comprises cottages occupied by persons employed solely for agricultural purposes in connection with the property, no account shall be taken of any value attributable to the fact that the cottage is suitable for the residential purposes of any persons other than agricultural labourers or workmen on the estate. Provided that where it is proved to the Commissioners that the value of the property has been depreciated by reason of the death of the deceased, the Commissioners in fixing the price shall take such depreciation into account.

An appeal shall not lie under section 10 of the Finance Act, 1894, whether as originally enacted or as applied by any other enactment, where the question in dispute is a question of the value of any real (including leasehold) property, but if any person is aggrieved by the decision of the Commissioners as to the value of such property, he may appeal against the decision in manner prescribed by Part I. of Finance (1909-10) Act, 1910, and the provisions as to appeals under that part of the Act shall apply accordingly.

Notwithstanding anything in the last preceding section, the proviso to subsection (5) of section 7 of the Finance Act, 1894, shall continue to apply to the valuation of property consisting of a tenancy from year to year and for determining the gross value or the net value of property for the purpose of section 16 of the principal Act.

Where it is claimed that a fixed duty is payable in respect of any property under subsection (1) of section 16 of the Finance Act, 1894, as being property of a gross value not exceeding £300 or £500, as the case may be, and such property includes property which is proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners to be subject to a charge created for the purpose of securing unpaid purchase money, or money borrowed for the purpose of paying purchase money, or to be subject to or liable to be made subject to a charge for securing an advance made or to be made for the purpose of the purchase thereof, the value thereof for the purpose of determining the gross value of the property under the said section shall be taken to be its value subject to such charge or liability as aforesaid.

Where an estate, in respect of which estate duty is payable on the death of a person dying on or after 30th April, 1909, comprises land on which timber, trees, wood, or underwood are growing, the value of such timber, trees, wood, or underwood shall not be taken into account in estimating the principal value of the estate or the rate of estate duty, and estate duty shall not be payable thereon, but shall at the rate due to the principal value of the estate be payable on the net moneys (if any), after deducting all necessary outgoings since the death of the deceased, which may from time to time be received from the sale of timber, trees, or wood, when felled or cut, during the period which may elapse until the land on the death of some other person again becomes liable, or would, but for this subsection, have become liable, to estate duty, and the owners or trustees of such land shall account for and pay the same accordingly as and when such moneys are received, with interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum from the date when such moneys are received. Provided that if at any time the timber, trees, or wood are sold, either with or apart from the land on which they are growing, the amount of estate duty on the principal value thereof which, but for this subsection, would have been payable on the death of the deceased, after deducting the amount (if any) of estate duty paid in respect of the timber, trees, or wood under this subsection since that date, shall become payable.

This provision applies to succession duty payable in respect of woodlands in like manner as it applies to estate duty, except as regards rate of succession duty.

Where increment value duty is to be collected on the occasion of the death of any person in respect of the fee simple of any land or any interest in land comprised in the property passing on the death of that person, allowance shall be made in determining the value of the estate for the purposes of estate duty under subsection (1) of section 7 of the principal Act, for the amount of increment value duty so to be collected as if it were a debt.

DEBTS AND FUNERAL EXPENSES.

Allowance against the gross principal value is made for reasonable funeral expenses, and for debts and incumbrances (including debts secured on heritage) if they were incurred or created by the deceased bona fide for full consideration in money or money's worth, wholly for his own use and benefit, and take effect out of his interest.

No allowance can be made for any debt in respect whereof there is a right to reimbursement from any other estate or person, unless such reimbursement cannot be obtained.

An allowance is not made, in the first instance, for debts due from deceased to persons resident out of the United Kingdom (unless contracted to be paid in the United Kingdom, or charged on property situate within the United Kingdom), except out of the value of any personal property of the deceased situate out of United Kingdom on which duty is paid, and no repayment of duty is made in respect of any such debts, except to extent to which the personal property in foreign country or colony where creditor resided is insufficient for payment.

Repayment of duty in respect of such debts, so far as not allowed for in inventory, may be claimed within three years of recording inventory.

Overpayment of duty.—Where Commissioners satisfied that too much duty paid, excess to be repaid, and, if overpayment due to overvaluation by Commissioners, with interest at 3 per cent.

Foreign property—expenses.—Where Commissioners satisfied that any additional expense in administering or realising foreign property is incurred by reason of its being situate out of the United Kingdom, an allowance for such expense, not exceeding 5 per cent. on the value, is made.

Foreign duties.—Where Commissioners satisfied that by reason of deceased's death any duty in respect of foreign property is payable in the country where the property is situate, an allowance of the amount of that duty is made from the value of the property.

INTEREST IN EXPECTANCY.

Where an estate includes an interest in expectancy (including an estate in reversion, and every other future interest, vested or contingent, but not including reversions expectant on the determination of leases), duty in respect of that interest is to be paid, at the option of the person accountable, either with the duty on the rest of the estate, or when the interest falls into possession. If duty not paid with the duty on the rest of the estate, then for the purpose of determining the rate of duty in respect of the rest of the estate, the value of the interest is to be its value at the date of the death of the deceased. The rate of duty upon the interest, when it falls into possession, is to be calculated according to its value at that time, together with the value of the rest of the estate as previously ascertained.

Commutation.—The Commissioners, in their discretion, upon application by a person entitled to an interest in expectancy, may commute the duty which would become payable in respect of such interest for a sum to be presently paid, and for determining that sum they shall put a present value upon that duty, regard being had to the contingencies affecting the liability to, and rate and amount of, such duty, and interest being reckoned at 4 per cent.

Bona fide sale.—Where an interest in expectancy has, prior to the passing of the various Acts respectively, been bona fide sold or mortgaged for full consideration in money or money's worth, no other duty is payable by the purchaser or mortgagee when the interest falls into possession than would have been payable if such Acts had not been passed, and in the case of a mortgage, any higher duty payable by the mortgagor is to rank as a charge subsequent to that of the mortgagee.

WHEN DUE—ADDITIONAL DUTY—INTEREST.

Due.—The duty which is to be collected on an inventory or account is due on the delivery thereof, or at the expiration of six months from the death, whichever first happens.

Income.—Every estate is to include all income accrued upon the property down to the date of deceased's death.

Additional duty.—Duty is, in the first instance, calculated at the appropriate rate according to the value of the estate, as set forth in inventory or account, but if afterwards it appears that for any reason too little duty has been paid, the additional duty is payable, and is treated as duty in arrear.

Interest.—Interest at 4 per cent. per annum on the estate duty (and all other death duties) is payable from date of death, or where duty payable by instalments, or becomes due at any date later than six months after the death, from the date at which the first instalment or the duty becomes due, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as if it were part of the duty.

Small estates.—Interest not charged on fixed duty of 30s. or 50s. if paid within twelve months after death.

Heritable estate and annuities.—The duty upon an account of heritable property may, at the option of the person delivering the account, be paid by eight equal yearly instalments or sixteen half-yearly instalments, with interest at the rate of 4 per cent. from the date at which the first instalment is due, less income tax, and the first instalment is to be due at the expiration of twelve months from the death, and the interest on the unpaid portion of the duty is to be added to each instalment and paid accordingly; but the duty for the time being unpaid, with such interest to the date of payment, may be paid at any time, and, in case the property is sold, is to be paid on the completion of the sale, and if not so paid, is to be duty in arrear.

Annuity or definite annual sum terminable or perpetual may, at option of person delivering account, be payable by four annual instalments.

Payment postponed.—Commissioners, when satisfied that duty on any property cannot, without excessive sacrifice, be raised at once, may postpone payment for such period, to such extent, and on payment of such interest, not exceeding 4 per cent. or any higher interest yielded by the property, and on such terms as they think fit.

CHARGE OF DUTY ON PROPERTY—FACILITIES FOR RAISING.

First charge on property.—Rateable part of whole duty, in proportion to value of any property not passing to executor, to be a first charge on property in respect of which duty chargeable—provided that property not to be so chargeable as against bona fide purchaser for valuable consideration without notice.

Certificate of duty.—On application, submitting description of lands, stocks, funds, etc., and of debts and incumbrances allowed, Commissioners shall grant certificate of duty paid in respect of the property, and specify debts and incumbrances allowed, as well as the lands and other property. This is to be conclusive evidence that amount of duty is a first charge on the property subject to repayment of duty from want of title or existence of any debt for which allowance was not made or from any other cause: Provided such repayment to be made to person producing certificate.

Repayment of duty to executor.—Rateable part of duty, when occasion requires, to be repaid to executor by trustees or owners of property: duty in respect of heritable property may be repaid by the proper instalments and with proper interest.

Power to raise duty by sale, etc.—Accountable person to have power, whether property vested in him or not, to raise duty, interest, and expenses, by sale or mortgage of or a terminable charge on that property or any part thereof.

Limited interest in property.—One having such, and paying duty in respect of property, to be entitled to the like charge, as if duty in respect of it had been raised by means of a mortgage to him.

Settled property.—Money from sale of settled property, or to be laid out for the purposes of a settlement, may be expended in paying duty on property comprised in the settlement and held for the same trust purposes.

Application for order of sale, etc.—Any person paying duty, and in whom the property is not vested, if authorised to raise the duty by sale or mortgage of the property, may apply to Court of Session—

(a.) For an order of sale, and, if granted, it shall provide for payment of duty out of price, and for disposal of surplus; Court to give directions as to sale, and may order person in whom property vested to grant disposition to purchaser, and if he refuses, may authorise Clerk of Court to execute such disposition;

(b.) For an order ordaining person in whom property vested to grant bond and disposition in security over property in favour of person who paid duty for the amount, and, if he refuses, Clerk of Court to execute such bond. Bond to be a first charge on property after any debt or incumbrance for which an allowance to be made under this Act for determining value of duty: Provided that summary diligence not competent thereon, and duty not recoverable under (a) or (b) earlier than if it had been recovered by direct action against person ultimately liable for duty.

APPEAL FROM COMMISSIONERS.

Appeal to Court of Session.—Person aggrieved by decision of Commissioners respecting repayment of excess of duty, or by amount of duty claimed, on ground of value, or rate, or otherwise, may, on payment of or giving security for duty claimed, appeal to Court of Session within time, and in manner directed by Court; and Court shall determine amount of duty, and if duty determined be less than that paid, excess shall be repaid.

Appeal from Court of Session not allowed except with leave of Court of Session or House of Lords.

Costs—repayment with interest.—Costs to be in discretion of Court, and Court may order excess of duty to be repaid with interest at 3 per cent. for such period as seems just.

Appeal without first making payment.—If satisfied as to hardship, Court may allow appeal without payment, or on part payment only of duty, and on security for the duty or unpaid portion; but in such case Court may order interest at 3 per cent. to be paid on unpaid duty, so far as it becomes payable under decision of Court.

Value of property not exceeding £10,000.—Appeal may be to Sheriff Court, to whom, for purposes of appeal, foregoing provisions are to apply, with right of appeal to Court of Session.

County Council to appoint valuers for purposes of 1894 Act, and to fix charges of remuneration; Court may refer questions of disputed value in appeal to their arbitration, the costs to be part of the cost of appeal.

DISCHARGE FROM DUTY.

Certificate of discharge.—(1.) Commissioners, if satisfied that full duty paid, or will be paid, shall, if required, give certificate to that effect, which shall discharge from further claim the property shown on certificate; (2.) Where accountable person two years after death delivers and verifies a statement, to the best of his knowledge and belief, of all property passing on the death of the person entitled thereto, Commissioners may determine rate of duty in respect of property for which applicant accountable, and on payment of duty at that rate, that property, and the applicant so far as regards it, to be discharged from further claim for duty, and Commissioners to give a certificate of discharge.

Fraud, etc., after disclosure of estate.—Certificate under (1) or (2) not to discharge any person or property in case of fraud or failure to disclose material facts, and not to affect rate of duty in respect of property afterwards shown to have passed on death; duty in respect of such property to be at such rate as would be payable if value thereof were added to value of property already accounted for.

Bona fide purchaser.—Provided that certificate purporting to be discharge of whole duty payable in respect of any property included in certificate shall exonerate bona fide purchaser for valuable consideration without notice from duty, notwithstanding such fraud or failure.

POWER TO TRANSFER EXCHEQUER BONDS IN SATISFACTION OF DEATH DUTIES.

Section 61 of the Finance Act, 1916, provides that any person from whom any sum is due on account of any death duty may pay that sum or any part thereof by means of the transfer in accordance with regulations made by the Treasury to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue of an equal amount of any Exchequer Bonds forming part of an issue which may be approved by the Treasury for the purpose, and any Exchequer Bonds so transferred shall be accepted by the Commissioners in satisfaction of the amount.

POWER TO TRANSFER LAND IN SATISFACTION OF DUTY.

Commissioners may, if they think fit, on the application of any person liable to pay estate duty or settlement estate or succession duty in respect of any real (including leasehold) property, accept in satisfaction of the whole or part of such duty such part of the property as may be agreed upon between the Commissioners and that person.

No stamp duty shall be payable on any Conveyance or Transfer of such land to the Commissioners. Commissioners to hold and deal with such property as Parliament may determine.

LIMITATION ON DEBTS DEDUCTIBLE FROM VALUE OF ESTATE.

Where a debt or incumbrance has been incurred or created in whole or in part, for the purpose of, or in consideration for, the purchase or acquisition or extinction, whether by operation of law or otherwise, of any interest in expectancy within the meaning of the Finance Act, 1894, in any property passing or deemed to pass, on the death of a person dying after 29th April, 1910, and any person whose interest in expectancy is so purchased, acquired, or extinguished becomes (under any disposition made by or through devolution of law from or under the intestacy of the deceased) entitled to any interest in that property then in determining the value of the estate of the deceased for the purpose of estate duty no allowance shall be made in respect of such debt or incumbrance, and any property charged with any such debt or incumbrance shall be deemed to pass freed from the debt or incumbrance.

Provided that:—

(a.) If part only of such debt or incumbrance was incurred or created for such purpose or as such consideration as aforesaid, this provision shall apply to that part of such debt or incumbrance only; and

(b.) If a person whose interest in expectancy in the property so purchased, acquired, or extinguished becomes entitled to an interest in part only of that property, this provision shall apply only to such part of the debt or incumbrance as bears the same proportion to the whole debt or incumbrance as the value of the part of the property to an interest in which he becomes entitled bears to the value of whole of that property.

COMPOSITION FOR "DEATH DUTIES."

Where from number of deaths on which property passed, or complicated interests of different persons therein, or other causes, it is difficult to ascertain amount of death duties (Estate, Inventory, Temporary Estate, Legacy, and Succession Duties), or to do so without undue expense, Commissioners on application, and all information being supplied, may assess such sum on the valuo of the property or interest as, in the circumstances, appears proper, and accept payment thereof in full discharge of all claims for death duties in respect of such property, and give a discharge accordingly. Discharge not to cover case of fraud or failure to disclose material facts.

APPORTIONMENT OF DUTY.

(1.) In case of property not passing to executor, rateable part of duty may be recovered by person who, being so authorised or required, has paid the duty in respect of any property, from the person entitled to any sum charged on such property (whether as capital, or an annuity, or otherwise), under a disposition not containing any express provision to the contrary.

(2.) Any dispute as to proportion of duty to be borne by any property or person may be determined, on application by any person interested, in manner directed by rules of Court of Session, or, when amount in dispute is less than £50, by Sheriff Court where applicant resides or property situate.

(3.) Any person from whom a rateable part of duty can be recovered shall be bound by the accounts and valuations as settled between the person entitled to recover the same and the Commissioners.

FORM OF INVENTORY, ETC.—PENALTIES.

Executor, or other accountable person failing to render all appropriate accounts and statements, renders himself liable to a penalty of £100, or a sum equal to double the duty unpaid for which he is accountable, according as Commissioners elect, with power to Commissioners to reduce penalty.

Forms.—All inventories, accounts, certificates statements, etc., to be in such form and contain such particulars as may be prescribed, and, if so required by Commissioners, shall be in duplicate, and accounts and statements shall be delivered and verified on oath and by production of books. Any person wilfully failing to comply with this enactment to be liable to penalty above.

SMALL ESTATES.

(1.) Not exceeding £1000 net; (2.) not exceeding £500 gross:—

(1.) Where the net value of the property real and personal, on which duty payable on the death of deceased, exclusive of settled property, does not exceed £1000, and the fixed duty or ad valorem duty has been paid upon the principal value of that estate, the Settlement Estate Duty and the Legacy and Succession Duties are not payable under the will or intestacy of the deceased in respect of that estate.

(2.) Where the gross value of property heritable and moveable, on which duty payable on death of deceased, exclusive of property settled otherwise than by will of deceased, exceeds £100, but does not exceed £300, a fixed duty of 30s. may be paid, and where it exceeds £300 but does not exceed £500, a fixed duty of 50s. may be paid. Should the gross value have been wrongly stated, as not over £300 or £500, as the case may be, the duty according to the correct value will be payable, and the 30s. or 50s. wrongly paid will be forfeited [unless the Commissioners are satisfied that there were reasonable grounds for the original estimate of the value of the property, when the amount of fixed duty may be deducted from the estate duty payable (3 Edw. VII., 2 c. 46, §14)].

The following further provisions apply to inventories under (2.):—

The executor nominated in the will, or other applicant for representation, may apply to the commissary-clerk or sheriff-clerk, who shall prepare and record inventory [Form B.], and expede confirmation; the will and testamentary writing, where the deceased left such, being produced to the sheriff-clerk or commissary-clerk.

The commissary-clerk or sheriff-clerk may require such proof as he may think sufficient to establish the identity of the executor or other applicant for representation; and if he has reason to believe that the value of the whole estate exceeds £500, he shall refuse to proceed until satisfied as to the real value.

Commissary- or sheriff-clerk to affix Seal of Court to any representation granted in England or Ireland, on same being sent to him with fee of 2s. 6d. Seal of English or Irish Probate Court affixed to confirmation containing English or Irish Estate on payment of 2s. 6d. fee.

The fees payable for recording inventory and will, preparing bond of caution and expeding confirmation are, where estate exceeds £20, 5s.; and the further sum of 1s. for every £10, or fraction thereof, beyond £20, but the maximum fee to be 15s.

Such duties, in respect of real or heritable estate, to cease in the case of persons dying on or after 1st July, 1888, and in lieu thereof the duties payable under the Succession Duty Act, 1853, and the additional duty under the Act 51 Vict. c. 8 shall be payable (51 Vict. c. 8, § 21, 2).

Annuities commencing to be payable on the death of persons dying after 19th May, 1853, are valued for legacy duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51); annuities commencing to be payable previous to that date, by the tables annexed to the Legacy Duty Act (36 Geo. Where the testator or intestate died before 1st June, 1881, duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies, under any testament, which shall together be of the amount of £20, each shall be charged with duty, though each or either may be separately under that amount. (See 44 Vict. c. 12, § 42.) Also where the value of the whole of the personal estate of any person dying after 24th March, 1880, does not amount to £100, no duty shall be chargeable in respect thereof, or of any portion thereof (43 Vict. c. 14, § 13).

If any individual who is unmarried and has living with him either his mother (being a widow or living apart from her husband) or some other female relative maintained by him at his own expense for the purpose of having the charge and care of any brother or sister of his, being a child for whom relief is given as above, entitled in respect of mother or such female relative to relief from tax upon £60.

If any individual maintains at his own expense any person being a relative of his or of his wife who is incapacitated by old age or infirmity from maintaining himself or his or his wife's widowed mother whether incapacitated or not and whose income from all sources does not exceed £50 a year, is entitled, in respect of every such person as aforesaid whom he so maintains, to relief from Income Tax equal to the amount of Income Tax on £25 and a like relief shall be given in the case of a claimant who by reason of old age or infirmity is compelled to depend upon the services of a daughter resident with and maintained by him or her. In the case of a widower or widow relief to the amount of Income Tax on £60 is given in respect of a person being a female relative, who is resident with him or her for the purpose of having the charge and care of their children. Where no such relative is able or willing to take such charge and another female person is employed relief is also given.

Allowances granted by the Minister of Pensions to widows of members of the naval, military, or air forces of the Crown in respect of their children is not reckoned in computing the income of such widows for any of the purposes of the Income Tax Acts.

Clergyman occupying a dwelling-house rent free by virtue of his office in such circumstances that the annual value is not regarded as part of his income, entitled upon notice to Surveyor not later than 30th September in any year, or where occupation commenced after 30th June before expiration of three months after date of occupation, to require that annual value after deduction of any annual sum payable in respect of house be treated as earned income of such clergyman.

Earned income is derived from active carrying on of trades, professions, and employments, and from certain pensions paid by an employer.

Interest, dividends, rents, and such like are not earned income.

Employers are bound to give statements of all sums paid to employees.

Every person is liable to a penalty for failure to make a return of his income when required, whatever his income may be.

Appeals for repayment on account of diminished income are generally restricted to new business not over three years set up at beginning of the year of taxation, and to businesses ceased. In the latter case repayment for three years may be claimed if assessments exceeded total profits.

Allowances for wear and tear not made in one year may in certain cases be claimed in the following year.

A clergyman paying rent for his house may be allowed at most one-eighth of the rent for rooms used mainly and substantially for the purposes of his duty. Where clergyman is in the occupation of a dwelling-house but pays no rent, he shall be deemed to pay a rent equal to the annual value of the dwelling-house as assessed to Income Tax under Schedule A.

Claims for repayment of Income Tax may be made within six years. Relief in respect of error or mistake made in assessment may be claimed not later than three years after the end of the year of assessment.

Time for penalties and increase of assessments is extended to six years.

A firm is assessable in one sum for all profits, but the allowances to an individual may be claimed by a partner for himself and allowed for him to the firm.

Section 18 of the Finance Act, 1923, provides where His Majesty in Council is pleased to declare for relief from double taxation on profits from the business of shipping.

Every warrant or cheque drawn or made after 30th November, 1924, in payment of any dividend or interest distributed by any Company must have annexed or be accompanied with an explanation of the Income Tax deduction. Section 33, Finance Act, 1924.

Additional Income Tax on Securities which the Treasury are willing to purchase.—In addition to any other income tax or super tax, there shall be charged and paid for the year beginning 6th April, 1916, in respect of any part of the income of any person derived from securities which for the time being are included in the Treasury Special list, an additional duty of income tax at the rate of 2s for every £ of that part of the income.

The Treasury Special list means any list published by the Treasury in the Gazette and for the time being in force, of securities which the Treasury are willing to purchase in connection with any arrangements for the regulation and maintenance of the foreign exchanges.

The additional duty is not to be charged on any income derived before the 29th July, 1916. There are certain reliefs granted under the Act. Sect. 27 of the Finance Act, 1916.

Quarterly Assessment.—Weekly wage-earners are assessable to and chargeable with income tax in respect of their wages in each quarter of the year instead of in the whole year. Weekly wage-earners are those persons who are employed by way of manual labour and who receive wages which are calculated by reference to the hour, day, week, or any period less than a month, at whatever intervals the wages may be paid, or who receive wages however calculated which are paid daily, weekly, or at any less intervals than a month. This part, however, does not apply to persons employed as clerks, typists, draftsmen, or any other similar capacity.

Employers when required by notice, shall within 14 days from the date of such notice deliver to the Surveyor of Taxes a return of the names and places of residence and the wages for the quarter of every wage-earner employed by him.

SUPER TAX.—In addition to the Income Tax there shall be charged, levied, and paid in respect of the income of any individual the total of which from all sources exceeds £2000 an additional duty of Income Tax (referred to as Super Tax) at the following rates:—

In respect of the first £2000 of the income	Nil
In respect of excess over £2000—
For every £1 of first £500 of excess ...	1s 6d
,, of next £500	2s 0d
,, ,, £1,000	2s 6d
,, ,, £1,000	3s 0d
,, ,, £1,000	3s 6d
,, ,, £1,000	4s 0d
,, ,, £1,000	4s 6d
,, ,, £12,000	5s 0d
,, ,, £10,000	5s 6d
For every £1 of remainder of excess ...	6s 0d

In estimating the total income of any individual for the purpose of super tax the amount of any earned income shall be taken to be the full amount of that income without the deduction of any allowance under the Finance Act, 1920.

In the case of the death of a person liable to super tax during any year for which super tax is charged, a part only of the year's super tax shall be payable proportionate to the part of the year which has elapsed before the date of the death.

With a view to preventing the avoidance of the payment of super tax through the withholding from distribution of income of a Company which would otherwise be distributed, Sect. 21 of the Finance Act, 1922, provides that super tax is to be charged in such cases.

DEDUCTION OF INCOME TAX.—(1) Dividends and interest from the public funds, foreign loans, foreign or colonial companies, interest of money borrowed on the security of rates, and official salaries and pensions are subject to deduction of Income Tax at the rate in force at the date of payment.

(2) Mortgage interest, feu-duties, and ground annuals are subject to deduction of Income Tax at the rate or rates in force during the period in which they have been accruing due. Patent royalties, annuities, and sums paid to sleeping partners are also subject to deduction of the tax.

Note.—No. 2 forms a guide for the deduction of Income Tax from dividends or interest payable out of the profits or gains of public companies in the United Kingdom.

Deductions in respect of Income Tax under Schedule A on lands and heritages in Scotland made from any rent, interest or payment due for the period ending on the 15th day of May, shall be made at the rate of the tax in force at the commencement of that period.

Rates of Property and Income Tax per £ on Incomes of £150 and upwards up to 5th April, 1894; on Incomes of £160 and upwards up to 30th September, 1915; on Incomes exceeding £130 up to 5th April, 1920; and on Incomes exceeding £135 in the case of Unmarried Persons, and £225 in the case of Married Persons after 5th April, 1920.

OLD AGE PENSIONS.

By the Old Age Pensions Act, 1908 (amended 23rd December, 1919, and 7th August, 1924), every person fulfilling statutory conditions laid down in the Act is entitled to such pension while conditions are fulfilled and he remains qualified under the Act. The statutory conditions are:—The person must be 70 years of age; satisfy pension authorities that for 10 years before receipt of any sum towards pension he has been a British subject, residing in United Kingdom, and that his yearly means do not exceed £49 17s 6d. But a deduction not exceeding £39 a year will be made from such part of a person's means as is not derived from earnings. The weekly rates are as follows:—

When claimant's yearly means do not exceed £26 5s			10s
Exceed—£26 5s.	but not	£31 10s ...	8s
£31 10s,	,,	£36 15s ...	6s

£42,	,,	£47 5s ...	2s
£47 5s,	,,	£49 17s 6d ...	1s
£49 17s 6d	...	No pension

For example, if a single person has means of £65 a year not derived from earnings, £39 will be deducted, leaving £26. The rate of pension will be 10s a week. If the joint means of a married couple amount to £130 a year not derived from earnings, £78 will be deducted, leaving £52. Thus the means of each will be taken as £26 a year, and the rate of pension will be 10s. a week. If a single person's means are £65 a year, made up of £35 from earnings and £30 from other sources, the £35 from earnings will be taken into account in full but the £30 from other sources will be deducted, leaving £35. The rate of pension will be 6s. a week. If the joint means of a married couple amount to £130 a year, made up of £70 from earnings and £60 from other sources, the £70 from earnings will be taken into account in full but the £60 from other sources will be deducted, leaving £70. Thus the means of each will be taken as £35 a year, and the rate of pension will be 6s. a week.

Pensions are paid weekly in advance out of money provided by Parliament. Pensions do not deprive pensioner of any franchise, right, or privilege, or subject him to disabilty.

Bye-Laws for the Regulation of Hackney Carriages and the Drivers thereof.

At Glasgow, the twenty-seventh day of October, Nineteen hundred and seventeen years, the Magistrates' Committee of "Police Commissioners, Glasgow," in virtue of the powers conferred on them by "The Glasgow Police Act, 1866," hereby make and enact the following Bye-laws for the Regulation of Hackney Carriages, and the conduct of the Proprietors and Drivers thereof, and ordain said Bye-laws to be strictly observed and enforced from and after the date of their being approved and confirmed by the Sheriff of Lanarkshire, in terms of said Statute, and until expressly altered.

A License shall not be granted to a person under the age of 18 years, or any person who shall have been convicted of theft or any crime inferring dishonesty.

Carriages not to be Licensed till Inspected.

No License shall be granted, or afterwards renewed, unless the Carriage, Horse, and Harness shall have been examined by the Chief Constable, Inspector of Hackney Carriages, or other person appointed by the Magistrates' Committee, and reported in writing, to the Magistrates' Committee, to have all the requisites and to be in a fit state to be licensed. No carriage will be licensed unless it be provided with Lamps, and have Roof, Springs, Wheels, Cushions, Linings, Panels, Doors, and Windows clean and in good Repair, and the Steps of entry safe and convenient, and that Skin, Rope, or Coir Mats, or other matting equally comfortable, are provided for Passengers' feet.

Licensee's Name to be Painted on Carriage.

The name of the Licensee of each Carriage, and the number of such Carriage, shall be painted in a straight line on the outside of each door, immediately under the window, in Roman Letters not less than one inch in height, and of proportionate breadth, in a colour conspicuously different from that of the Carriage, and be continued legible during all the time the Carriage shall ply or be used for hire.

Number of License to be painted or affixed on Outside of Carriage.

The number of each Carriage on an enamelled iron plate shall be affixed on the back of the Carriage, and be distinctly visible from the outside, and be kept legible during all the time the Carriage shall ply or be used for hire.

Licenses to be numbered Consecutively and Duplicate signed by the Registrar.

The Licenses shall be numbered consecutively, in the order in which the same shall have been registered; and each Licensee, at the time of receiving his License, shall be furnished with a Duplicate of such License, signed by the Registrar.

When Carriages cease to ply.

Whenever a Licensed Carriage ceases to ply, the Proprietor thereof shall give intimation immediately to the Registrar, Central Police Buildings, and shall return the License to him, and the License will then lapse and become null and void, if it has not already done so by expiration or suspension or revocation; and each Carriage shall not again be used as a Licensed Hackney Carriage until it has been relicensed.

Carriages to be in readiness.

The Owner of each Licensed Carriage shall whenever required by the Chief Constable, have the same ready for hire at one of the Public Stands from Nine o'clock in the morning until Eleven o'clock at night, unless when engaged. And when within their respective yards, coach-houses, or stables, shall turn out for hire as soon as practicable, or can be done without injury to his servants or horses, after being called upon, between Eleven o'clock at night and Nine in the morning.

Carriages let out for Hire at other places, or met with, if not engaged.

All Carriages let out on any station or place for hire shall be subject to the Stand Rules; as also Carriages when met with if not at the time actually engaged.

Carriages to take their places on Stands in the order of their arrival.

All Carriages shall take their station on the Street Stands in the order of their arrival, and at such distance from each other as that persons walking may conveniently pass between them; and when any Carriage shall be called or driven off any Stand, the Carriage immediately behind shall draw up to the place vacated, and any other Carriage behind in the like order, and when a vacancy shall occur at the lower end of the line, it may be taken up by the first Carriage from the next division of the Stand, or if the first shall not be driven to it, then by the second, and so on in the order of the line. After setting down a fare, the Carriage may proceed to the nearest stand at which there is room.

Arrangement of Carriages at places of Public Amusement and Assembly.

All Carriages ordered back for a party, at any place of public amusement or assembly, shall have the preference of drawing up nearest to the door or entrance of such place, and shall drive up in the order in which they arrive. When a party is put down the Driver shall immediately pass on and not wait at the door, but take such place as the Police may direct; and all Carriages waiting for hire at any such place shall stand on the opposite side of the street, or at such other place as the Police may on such occasions direct, for the purpose of preventing confusion.

DRIVERS.

jured while in possession of the Driver, the expenses of any necessary repairs will be deducted from the sum deposited.

He shall wear the Badge displayed conspicuously on his left breast above his outer garment, while on the stand or driving, or otherwise employed as a Driver, except when engaged at a marriage, or funeral, or country excursion, or airing, when he may wear his Badge concealed.

Property accidentally left in any Carriage.

After completion of any journey, the Driver shall carefully search the Carriage for any property which may have been left therein; and in every case of property being left in any Carriage by any person or persons who may have hired or used the same, such property shall be taken and delivered up to the person or persons who have left the same, and, if not so delivered up, shall, within twelve hours after the property is found, be taken in the state in which it was found to the Central Police Office, and there delivered to the Registrar, with the name of the Owner and Driver, and number of the Carriage; the Driver in such case to be rewarded at the expense of the hirer, which reward shall be a sum equal to at least 2*s.* 6*d.* in the £ left with the Magistrate or Registrar, to be handed to the Driver if the property is given up outwith his presence.

CARRIAGES.

1. Proprietors of carriages propelled by mechanical means shall furnish a Certificate from a responsible firm of Engineers that each carriage submitted for licensing is, so far as the mechanism is concerned, fit for public use.

2. The licence shall not be granted, or afterwards renewed, unless the carriage shall have been examined and approved by the Magistrates Committee, the Chief Constable, the Registrar of Police, the Inspector of Hackney Carriages, or a person or persons authorised by said Committee.

3. All motor carriages shall comply with the requirements of the Locomotives on Highways Act, 1896 (59 and 60 Vict., Cap. 36), and of the Regulations of the Secretary for Scotland made in pursuance thereof.

4. Every carriage shall, before being licensed, be provided with lamps, and have roof, springs, wheels, cushions, lining, panels, doors, windows, and appointments perfectly clean and in perfect order and repair; the paint and varnish bright and in good condition; the steps of entry safe and convenient, and shall also have skin, rope, or coir mats, or other matting equally comfortable, for passengers' feet. Any such carriage, after being licensed, shall be kept in such like good order and repair and cleanliness.

5. The name of the licensee of each carriage shall be painted in a conspicuous place on the carriage in Roman letters not less than one inch in height and of proportionate breadth, in a colour conspicuously different from the ground colour, and shall be continued clearly legible during the currency of the licence.

6. Two plates, on which is inscribed the number of each carriage (such number being the number assigned to it as a motor car in pursuance of Section 2 of the Motor Car Act, 1903), which must conform as to lettering, numbering, and otherwise with the Regulations for the time being made under the said Motor Car Act, 1903, by the Secretary for Scotland, shall be securely fixed, one on the front of, and the other on the back of the carriage, in such positions as the Magistrates Committee or person authorised by them may direct, and every letter or figure on the plates shall be in an upright position and easily distinguishable, in the case of the plate placed in front of the carriage from in front of the carriage, and in the case of the plate placed on the back of the carriage from behind the carriage, and such letters and figures shall be kept legible and easily distinguishable, and shall not be concealed in any manner of way.

Designs, painted or otherwise, shown upon the carriage, may, with the approval of the Magistrates Committee, be used instead of plates, and any reference to plates in these Bye-Laws shall be construed to include a reference to such designs.

7. A lamp shall be placed on the back of the carriage, and shall be of such dimensions and so contrived as to illuminate, by means of reflection, transparency, or otherwise, and render clearly and easily distinguishable every letter or figure on the identification or number plate on the back of the carriage.

8. A metal plate bearing the number which is to distinguish the carriage, and hereinafter called the "Number Plate," as also a plate or printed card in a slip-in frame (called the Fare Plate or Card), setting forth in distinct figures and lettering such particulars as to fares as are to be set forth on the obverse side of the ticket required to be delivered by the driver to the hirer, shall be affixed in a conspicuous position inside the carriage, and shall be kept clearly legible and easily distinguishable, and not concealed in any manner of way.

9. A horn or gong, or other approved means of giving due warning of the approach of the vehicle, shall be provided and securely fixed on some part of the carriage close to, and within easy reach of, the driver.

11. Provision shall be made on every carriage for the conveyance of luggage not exceeding 112 lb.

12. A suitable appliance for extinguishing fire shall be carried with each vehicle, to be readily available in case of emergency.

13. Every taximeter or distance recorder affixed to a carriage shall conform to any regulations which may from time to time be issued by the said Magistrates Committee.

14. Every taximeter shall have holes or lugs on each side, so that a wire can be passed through and sealed, or shall be fitted with other approved means of effectually sealing up the case containing the working parts.

When the gear which operates the distance recorder is not enclosed in the main part of the machine, the case or cover of the same shall be made so that it may be sealed in a similar manner.

15. The licensee shall give a guarantee that each taximeter instrument affixed to each carriage (giving its number) has been carefully examined and tested, and will give correct readings if a certain size of road wheel and driving pinion are used.

16. The measurement of the diameter or circumference of the road wheel by which the taximeter is driven, as also the number of teeth on the driving pinion, shall be clearly stencilled on the body of each instrument, or on a suitable plate provided near to the instrument. These figures shall be open for inspection by the Hackney Carriage Inspector appointed by the said Magistrates Committee, or by any Constable in uniform.

17. No taximeter or distance recorder, except such as has been tested and approved by the Registrar of Police, the Hackney Carriage Inspector, or other person authorised by the Magistrates Committee to test such instruments, shall be affixed to and used on any carriage.

18. Taximeters shall only be fitted in such positions, and in such manner as may be approved by the Magistrates Committee, the Chief Constable, the Registrar of Police, the Hackney Carriage Inspector, or a person authorised to examine and test such instruments.

19. Each taximeter instrument shall be stamped or sealed by, or under authority of, the Magistrates Committee, after trial and approval, as to distance and time. This stamp or seal shall not be broken until intimation has been given to the Registrar of Police. Should the seal be broken, the instrument shall be re-tested and passed before being again used.

20. No taximeter instrument shall at any time be affixed to a carriage without the Registrar of Police being forthwith advised of the particulars of such affixing.

21. No taximeter instrument which is, or has become, in any way defective, shall be used upon a carriage, and upon service by the Registrar of Police of a notice "not to use," the taximeter shall be at once removed, or the carriage fitted with it shall be immediately withdrawn.

22. A proprietor, upon ceasing to use a taximeter, shall intimate the same in writing to the Registrar of Police.

23. A taximeter shall in no circumstances be used upon a carriage in connection with a wheel of diameter different from that for which the taximeter has been designed, geared, and tested.

24. No taximeter shall be used for a longer period than six months without re-testing.

25. Every taximeter shall, during the period between one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise, be illuminated in such a way as to render clearly distinguishable and easily read every letter and figure thereon.

DRIVERS.

26. Every driver of a motor hackney carriage shall, on all occasions, be careful to observe the proper rules for driving, provided that when passing a tramway car or any other vehicle which runs on fixed rails he may pass on either side of such car or other vehicle. At a Tramway stopping place he shall draw up until the roadway is clear of passengers entering or leaving a tramway car.

27. Every driver shall, when about to alter speed or direction, give clear and sufficient indication of his intention to do so, and shall be careful to prevent danger, obstruction, annoyance, or inconvenience, and shall drive slowly and cautiously in crowded thoroughfares, and when turning from one street into another, and passing over busy crossings.

28. Every driver shall, by sounding the horn or gong or other instrument, give audible and sufficient warning of the approach or position of the motor carriage.

29. No driver shall conceal, or remove, or deface, or alter, or cause, or permit to be concealed, removed, defaced, or altered, any name or number or lettering on the carriage or on any plates thereon, or on the taximeter instrument.

30. Every driver shall keep all the carriage lamps clean and well lighted at all times during the period between one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise, and in like manner shall keep clearly illuminated the taximeter affixed to the carriage, so that every letter and figure thereon shall be clearly distinguishable and easily read.

31. Under no other circumstances than those provided for in Section 235 of the Glasgow Police Act, 1866, shall a driver allow any person to ride beside him.

32. No driver shall permit or allow any person to stand or loiter beside or near the carriage, or permit or allow any person to sound the horn or gong or other warning instrument while the carriage is on any stand, or when kept waiting for a passenger when on hire.

33. The flag attached to a taximeter shall be kept in a vertical position, and the Indicators at zero when the carriage is disengaged.

34. The driver shall lower the flag attached to a taximeter to the recording position when the carriage has been engaged and the hirer has had a reasonable time to take his seat (provided that if from any cause whatsoever outwith the hirer's control the driver is unable to start the carriage, the flag shall be at once lowered to or placed at the non-recording position, and remain in that position until the carriage has been started on the journey, when it shall again be raised or put to the recording position), and during the whole course of the journey the flag shall be kept at the recording position. On the completion of the journey, and while the passenger is in the act of paying the amount of fare recorded, the driver shall lower, put, or place the flag to the third or "stopped" position, so that the meter shall cease to record. He shall not raise the flag to the vertical position until the hirer has examined, or has had an opportunity of examining, the taximeter and the amount of fare recorded.

35. Should the taximeter record a fare higher than is clearly in proportion to the mileage covered, the driver shall not be entitled to exact or demand more than the legal fare by distance chargeable under the Bye-Laws, and in case of dispute the distance shall be ascertained from the Table of distances appended to the Hackney Carriage Bye-Laws. The like fare shall be exigible should the taximeter stop recording during the journey.

36. In the event of the mechanism of the carriage breaking down, or in any way becoming unfit to convey the hirer to the destination for which the carriage is engaged, the driver shall not be entitled to charge any fare for the distance already travelled, provided that, should the hirer elect to wait until repairs are completed, the full fare recorded on the completion of the journey shall be exigible, less the amount of fare chargeable for waiting, in accordance with the rate for waiting fixed under these Bye-Laws.

37. A driver shall not permit a passenger or any unlicensed person to drive the motor carriage. Provided that, with the permission of the Registrar of Police, a "learner," though not licensed as a driver, may, when and so long as accompanied by a licensed driver, drive the motor carriage when not hired.

38. A driver who is only licensed to drive a carriage drawn by animal power shall not drive a carriage propelled by mechanical means, and no proprietor shall so employ such a driver.

39. No driver shall demand or receive, over and above his fare, any sum for, or by way of, back fare for the return of his carriage from the place at which it is discharged.

Agencies:—Domestic missions, Saturday evening concerts, and Kilmun convalescent home.

The Saturday evening concerts were started in 1854 as a counter-attraction to the pernicious influence of the public-house, and for seventy-one years they have continued to exercise a wholesome and elevating influence in the community, and have contributed in no small degree to the cultivation of a higher taste for, and appreciation of good music.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY.

Established in Glasgow, 1848.

Summary of Report for Twelve Months ending 31st March, 1924.

The primary object of the Society is to visit poor families in their own homes and give assistance in money, food, clothing, &c., to deserving cases; but no work of charity, which it is possible for a layman to undertake, comes amiss to the members—they extend a helping hand to the deserving poor, no matter what their religion may be.

During the year ending 31st March, 1924, the number of families relieved was 12,007, comprising about 63,000 persons. The number of visits to the homes of the poor was 63,318. 181 persons were assisted to get work, and 113 sent to friends. Through the influence of the Society, 320 admissions were procured for persons to Infirmaries, Hospitals, Lanark Orphanage and Homes.

In addition to the other works of the Society, the members have the undernoted homes under their care:—Holiday Home for poor children, Langbank; and Rutherglen, for destitute children.

The total income for the year amounted to £22,413 19s. 9d. This sum has been practically all used in relieving the poor, only a very small sum being required for working expenses, i.e., stationery, &c. The Society holds no property or investments. Its income is derived entirely from voluntary contributions, and is expended as received for the relief of the poor.

The work is carried on gratuitously by 1,151 members, all laymen, belonging to the various Catholic congregations in the Archdiocese of Glasgow. The books and accounts have been audited by Mr. Hugh Brechin, C.A. (Messrs. Dempster, Brechin & Waddell, C.A.), 34 West George Street.

Subscriptions and donations will be thankfully received and acknowledged by the Hon. Treasurer, St. Vincent de Paul Society, 92 Dunlop Street, Glasgow, or members of the Executive Committee.

Scottish branch office, 302 Buchanan St., Glasgow. Committee of management in Scotland—Chairman; D. Cooper, Esq., late General Manager, Glasgow & South-Western Rly.; W. Armstrong, Esq., late L.M. & S. Rly.; J. Ballantyne, Esq., O.B.E., L.M. & S.; J. Calder, Esq., L. & N.E.; J. C. Christie, Esq., L. & N.E.; G. T. Cornet, Esq., L.M. & S.; W. Crozier, Esq., O.B E., L.M.& S.; G. Davidson, Esq., L.& N.E.; J. Ellis, Esq., L.& N.E.; J. P. Grassick, Esq., L. & N E.; J. J. Haining, Esq., L.M. & S.; W. Johnston, Esq., L. & N.E.; R. Killin, Esq., C.B.E., L.M. & S.; T. S. Mackintosh, Esq., L. & N.E.; Donald A. Matheson, Esq., L.M. & S.; John Muir, Esq., late G. & S.W.; A. Newlands, Esq., L.M. & S.; R. Park, Esq., late Highland Railway; M. S. Speir, Esq., L.M. & S.; C. H. Stemp, Esq., C.B.E., L. & N.E.; M. S. Strang, Esq., L. & N.E.; R. A. Thom, Esq., L. & N.E. Bankers, National Bank of Scotland, Ltd. (St. Enoch Square branch).

This institution, which has no political objects, and is officially recognised by the Railway Companies and managers and by their chief officers, affords a channel for those who sympathize with railway servants through which to help them in the time of need, and the extent of its sphere of usefulness depends in a great measure upon public support.

Since the establishment of the Institution in 1858 nearly £1,855,000 has been distributed, assistance having been rendered to 236,188 persons, as under:—7,161 widows of men killed; 27,161 widows of men dying of sickness; 196,629 men injured by accident; 4,422 men disabled by old age and other causes; 315 children and other dependents incapable of earning their living, and also incapacitated women employees, and in addition to these, 7,254 widows and disabled servants have received pensions of from £5 to £30 per annum; and 2,846 children of both sexes have been educated and maintained.

Donations and subscriptions.—A donation of £105 in one sum or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a patron or patroness for life, with the privilege of fifteen votes. A donation of £52 10s. in one sum, or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a vice-president for life, with the privilege of six votes. A donation of £10 10s. constitutes the donor a life subscriber, with the privilege of one vote. A yearly payment of £1 1s. (or in quarterly or half-yearly instalments) constitutes a subscriber, with the privilege of two votes. An annual subscription of 10s. 6d. constitutes a subscriber, with one vote. Any three donors or subscribers may also recommend applicants qualified for relief from the special benevolent fund.

Appeal.—Apart from the numerous cases assisted temporarily by gratuities the Institution is responsible for the maintenance and education of 323 children at an annual cost of nearly £12,200, also for the payment of annuities granted to 2,996 persons, entailing a yearly expenditure of upwards of £48,700. As the continuance of about one-third of the annuities is entirely dependent upon the income from donations and subscriptions being sufficient, the future is causing the Board of Management much anxiety, for, to enable these allowances to be renewed yearly and new cases to be relieved, considerable additional support is urgently needed.

Upwards of 87 per cent. of the recipients of annuities are widows of railway employees, a large proportion of whom are quite unable to assist themselves in any way, and in the case of the men themselves, they are all permanently disabled, consequently they cannot increase their slender means.

With a view to further assisting the poorer dependents the Board has allowed to them small additional weekly grants, but unfortunately through want of funds these payments have had to be restricted to those having less than £20 per annum, including their allowance from this Charity.

The Scottish committee of management respectfully and earnestly appeal for aid to the shareholders of railways individually, as specially interested in those upon whom devolve the executive duties in their railway establishments, and to the benevolent of all classes, who are either directly or indirectly benefited by the services of a numerous, well-disciplined, and laborious class of public servants. Donations and subscriptions will be gratefully received and duly acknowledged by the secretary for Scotland, EDWARD BAKER, London Midland & Scottish Railway, 202 Buchanan Street, Glasgow.

The capital of the trust amounts at present to about £28,000, and the income is administered by a body of trustees, assisted by a staff of lady visitors. The sum distributed for the year 1923-1924 was £1028 16s. 10d, which was dispensed in amounts ranging from £6 10s. to £13 each per annum. GLASGOW DISCHARGED PRISONERS AID SOCIETY, 28 Cathedral Square, C.4.

The Rt. Hon. the Lord Provost, chairman; John A. Reid, J.P., City Chamberlain, hon. treas.; H. Staveley Roberts, C.A., hon. sec.; R. M. B. Colquhoun, superintendent; Miss Marshall, missionary to females.

206,001 men and 106,381 women, in all 312,382 discharged prisoners and convicts have been dealt with by us since March, 1889, at which period the directors inaugurated a change in the method of their operations among this unfortunate class of our criminal population. Our handsome building in Cathedral Square for the reception of the discharged prisoners and convicts has now been occupied by us since 1896, and its close contiguity to the exit gate of the Duke Street Prison makes it peculiarly suitable for the objects pursued by our Society. Every prisoner on discharge is personally invited to our hall, where a hearty breakfast of coffee with an ample supply of bread and margarine is provided for them. After family worship every one of this large number is conversed with, and the name and the charge against him, with the sentence, entered in our books. The Society adopts the plan of securing remunerative employment for every man who is disposed honestly to accept it. To this course we steadily adhere, and the result is that since 1889 31,633 men have been placed in employment in the city and neighbourhood. In 1924 work was found for 151 men.

Admission to Rescue Homes is procured for those women who desire to break with their old courses.

The objects of the institution are:—(1) The medical and surgical treatment of poor children suffering from non-infectious diseases; (2) the advancement and diffusion of medical science with reference to children's diseases; (3) the training of nurses for sick children.

The institution (founded in 1883) consists of:—(1) a new hospital at Yorkhill, near the University, containing 274 cots, which was completed in 1914, and opened by their Majesties the King and Queen in July of that year. In the wards of the hospital over 6,000 children are treated each year, and in addition numerous out-patients are seen and treated in the admission department of the hospital; (2) an out-patient department or dispensary at 11 West Graham Street, opened in 1880, where over 17,000 cases, involving over 50,000 attendances, are treated per annum; and (3) a country branch of the hospital at Drumchapel, Dumbartonshire, opened in 1903, containing 30 cots, where about 200 children requiring somewhat prolonged treatment are cared for per annum.

Patients, who must be under 13 years of age, are admitted to the hospital in order of urgency. Accident cases and cases of urgency are admitted to the hospital at any hour, by day or night, without a recommendation by a subscriber. Other suitable cases recommended by qualified subscribers are admitted to the hospital as arranged by the Medical Superintendent, when there is available accommodation, between the hours of 12 and 1 every forenoon (except on Sundays). The dispensary is open every forenoon (except Sunday), from 10 to 11, for the reception and treatment of children under 13 years of age who are sick and poor and are not suffering from infectious disease. Recommendation by a subscriber is not required to secure advice and treatment at the dispensary. The country branch is used for special cases sent from the hospital. Visitors to patients in the hospital are admitted on Sundays from 2.30 to 3.15, or if they reside in the country on Saturdays at the same hour. Visitors to patients in the country branch are admitted on Saturdays from 3 to 4.

The hospital, dispensary and country branch are all supported by voluntary contributions. The Directors appeal most earnestly for funds, as the ordinary income is quite insufficient to meet the largely increased expenditure necessary if the children of Glasgow and the West of Scotland are to reap the full advantage of all the resources of the new hospital. Subscribers are entitled to recommend one patient for every £1 1s. subscribed.

Subscribers and others interested and desiring to see over the hospital may do so any afternoon. They should go to the main entrance, ring the bell, and ask the attendant for the Superintendent or the Matron, who will arrange for their being conducted through the hospital.

LIMBLESS SAILORS AND SOLDIERS.

Princess Louise Scottish Hospital, Erskine House, near Bishopton.

Patron, H.R.H. Princess Louise, Duchess of Argyll.
President, The Rt. Hon. The Lord Provost of Glasgow.
Vice president, Sir John Reid, D.L.
Hon. Secretaries, Wm. Guy, Esq., Sir John S. Samuel, K.B.E., D.L.
Hon. Treasurer, David M'Cowan, Esq., D.L.
Acting Secy. and Treas., T. A. Harvie Anderson, C.B, LL.B., Writer, 201 West George Street.

The Hospital was established in 1916 for the care and treatment of maimed Sailors and Soldiers, and especially those who lost limbs in the recent war. During the period of its existence the Hospital has treated 7788 cases. The number of cases where an artificial limb is required is now comparatively small, and the activities of the Institution are being devoted to the assistance, medical and otherwise, of all classes of maimed and disabled ex-soldiers and sailors. The principal direction in which it carries on its beneficent labours is in providing Workshops for the training of disabled men in a variety of occupations suitable to their capacity. There are at present 114 men engaged at the Workshops receiving training in the following occupations:—Basket-making, Bootmaking, Cabinetmaking, French Polishing, Hairdressing, Leatherwork, Agriculture, including Market Gardening and Pigs and Poultry.

The Workshops are recognised by the Government as one of the official Training Centres, and the Committee have been able not only to provide courses of instruction with most satisfactory results but have also placed many men, after their period of training was concluded, in positions where they can continue their trade and attain to a self-respecting position in society.

It is intended that the Hospital should in the future deal with an increasing number of disabled men, and the ideal is to make the institution a Scottish Chelsea Hospital, where, as the years go on, the gallant men who fought and suffered in the Great War, and who find themselves, owing to their wounds and disabilities, unable to cope with modern industrial conditions, can find a haven and resting-place amid agreeable surroundings, and where they can feel that a grateful country does not forget the debt it owes them for their self-sacrificing loyalty to King and Country.

THE GLASGOW ROYAL MATERNITY AND WOMEN'S HOSPITAL—Rottenrow.

The objects of this institution are—(1) To attend to women in the hospital, and also at their own homes during their confinement; (2) to treat gynæcological cases, and to provide a training school in practical obstetrics for medical students, ladies' nurses, and midwives. A large and fully-equipped addition to the hospital, on the most approved principles, has just been erected, in which the obstetrical and gynæcological work is carried on. The old hospital building is now chiefly used as nurses' quarters. Patients in labour are admitted at once on application at the hospital without any recommendation. A committee of ladies visit the hospital and assist the directors.

There is a branch place of call at 409 St. Vincent Street. Patients are not received into it, but are attended to from it at their own homes. There is a nurses' residence at 10 Apsley Place, s.s., where messages for the Hospital are received.

The medical staff, both on the obstetric and gynæcological sides, are the leading physicians in these departments in the city, and physicians attend to out-door cases when necessary in the various quarters of the city.

Sir John M. MacLeod, Bart., LL.D., 149 West George Street, hon. treasurer; William Guy, 146 Buchanan St., secretary; Wm. Hill, house superintendent and cashier; Miss Baillie, matron; Ben. B. Mackinnon, collector.

The number of women who derived the benefit of this institution during the past year was 7659.

Increased annual subscriptions are very urgently needed.

THE GLASGOW CENTRAL DISPENSARY.

The object of the dispensary is to provide free medical and surgical advice, and, when necessary, medicine also to the sick poor. The premises are at 30 Richmond St. (near High St.), convenient to a district of the city where such a charity is much needed.

Secretary and treasurer, George C. Chapman, writer, 107 Bath Street.

Equitable Bonus System, providing Increasing Share of Profits

LARGE PROFITS.—The Society, since its formation a century ago, has an unbroken record of large profits paid to its members. Throughout that long period the Bonus paid has never been at a lower rate than £1 10s. per cent. per annum calculated on a compound system. This was the rate declared as at 31st December, 1920, which included nearly three years of war. For the 20 years ending December, 1915, the rate of compound bonus was £1 15s. per cent. per annum. Bonuses have been so large that the sums assured by the earlier policies are more than doubled.
